AN ACT in relation to a feasibility study and report on the potential reestablishment of the empire state games

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. (a) The commissioner of parks, recreation and historic preservation, in conjunction with the department of economic development, shall conduct a feasibility study and prepare a report on the potential reestablishment of the empire state games. Such study shall explore the overall costs of reestablishing the empire state games, as well as costs associated with the marketing of such games through the department of economic development. Such study shall also explore the potential revenue generated by hosting and marketing the empire state games.

(b) On or before December 31, 2026, the commissioner of parks, recreation and historic preservation and the department of economic development shall issue a report of the findings of the feasibility study to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, and the speaker of the assembly.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
