AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to requiring that two electronic benefit transfer credit or debit cards be issued to certain households receiving special supplemental nutrition program for women, infants and children (WIC) benefits

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The section heading of section 2507 of the public health law, as amended by chapter 12 of the laws of 2017, is amended and a new subdivision 3 is added to read as follows:

Special supplemental nutrition program for women, infants and children[~~; specialty formula~~].

3. Any electronic benefit transfer services for WIC benefits shall ensure that two electronic benefit transfer credit or debit cards are issued for use by any recipient household where such additional household member is either a parent, guardian or caretaker of the covered infant or a spouse, domestic partner or parent of the covered mother. No card shall be issued to any person under the age of eighteen unless such person is a parent or guardian of a minor child.

(a) The department shall be responsible for any additional expenses associated with the provision of additional electronic benefit transfer cards.

(b) The department shall not reduce the availability or the level of benefits provided to new or existing covered mothers, infants and children in association with providing additional electronic benefit transfer cards.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
