AN ACT to amend the state finance law, in relation to funding of state university of New York programs by state agencies

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. All New York state sponsored programs conducted by the state university of New York and funded by a New York state agency shall be reimbursed at no less than twenty-six percent of the direct costs necessary to fulfill the obligations of such program's terms related to costs not otherwise allowable as a direct charge.

§ 2. Section 179-ee of the state finance law is amended by adding a new subdivision 4 to read as follows:

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article to the contrary, for the purposes of a contract for a New York state sponsored program conducted by the state university of New York and funded by a state agency, a state agency may award a sole source contract to the research foundation of the state university of New York, on behalf of the state of New York, when the state agency determines that operation of such sponsored program by the state university of New York would produce administrative efficiencies or cost savings or program results which would exceed those likely to be achieved through the use of a request for proposals.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to contracts awarded on or after such effective date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
