AN ACT to amend the tax law and the real property tax law, in relation to eliminating nonprofit tax exemptions for entities engaged in political activity

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 27-a to read 2 as follows:

3 § 27-a. Suspension of tax-exempt status for political campaign activ-
4 ity. 1. Definitions. For the purposes of this section, the following 5 terms shall have the following meanings:

6 (a) The term "nonprofit organization" means any corporation, associ-
7 ation, trust, community chest, fund, foundation, or limited liability 8 company organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, or 9 educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or 10 animals, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit 11 of any private shareholder or individual.

12 (b) The term "political campaign activity" means any action communi-13 cation or expenditure which constitutes participation or intervention, 14 directly or indirectly, in any political campaign on behalf of or in 15 opposition to any candidate for office.

1 (e) Notwithstanding the definitions set forth in the election law, the 2 term "expenditure" means any disbursement of the organization's funds or 3 use of its resources.

4 2. Prohibited activities. Any exemption from one or more taxes, fees, 5 or impositions codified in this chapter that is available to nonprofit
6 organizations shall not be available to such nonprofit organizations
7 that engage in political activity. The following activities are per se 8 violations of this prohibition, but the absence of one of these activi-9 ties does not preclude a finding that an organization has engaged in 10 political campaign activity based on all other relevant facts and 11 circumstances:

12 (a) Making, soliciting, or facilitating, directly or indirectly, any 13 contribution to or for the benefit of any candidate for public office's 14 authorized political committee or political party.

15 (b) Publishing or distributing, by any medium, including but not 16 limited to written, electronic or oral statements, that expressly advoca-17 te for the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate for 18 public office.

19 (c) Using or permitting the use of the organization's assets, facili-20 ties, staff, mailing lists, websites or other resources to support or 21 oppose a candidate for public office, except as explicitly permitted 22 under the safe harbor provisions in subdivision four of this section.

23 3. Permissible activities. The term "political campaign activity"
24 shall not include:

25 (a) Engaging in lobbying or advocating for the adoption or rejection 26 of legislation, provided such communication does not, based on all the 27 facts and circumstances, constitute participation or intervention in a 28 political campaign.

29 (b) Conducting non-partisan analysis, study or research and making the 30 results thereof available to the public, even if such analysis, study or 31 research may affect public perception of a candidate for public office.

32 (c) Providing non-partisan voter education, including the publication
33 of voter guides or the hosting of candidate forums, provided such activi-34 ties are conducted in a neutral, unbiased manner consistent with the 35 requirements of subdivision four of this section.

36 (d) Encouraging participation in the electoral process through non-37 partisan voter registration and get-out-the-vote drives.

38 4. Safe harbors. An organization shall not be deemed to have engaged 39 in prohibited political campaign activity solely on the basis of the 40 following activities, provided the specified conditions are met:

41 (a) Candidate appearances. Hosting a candidate for public office to 42 speak or appear at an event, provided that: (i) if one candidate for a 43 specific office is invited to speak, all other legally qualified candi-
44 dates for that same office are invited and afforded an equal opportunity 45 to participate; (ii) the organization does not, in its communications or

47 and (iii) no political fundraising occurs at the event or in connection 48 with it.

51 facilities, goods or services are made available to all candidates for 52 the same office on the same basis and for a fee that is at least fair 53 market value; and (ii) the provision of such facilities, goods or 54 services is in the ordinary course of the organization's regularly 55 conducted activities.

1 (c) Website content. Maintaining a website that provides information 2 about or links to candidates for public office, provided that: (i) the 3 information or links are provided for all legally qualified candidates

7 indicate support or opposition.

25 sively for religious, charitable, scientific, testing for public safety, 26 literary or educational purposes, or to foster national or international 27 amateur sports competition (but only if no part of its activities 28 involve the provision of athletic facilities or equipment), or for the 29 prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earn-30 ings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or indi-
