Introduced by M. of A. VALDEZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the workers' compensation law, in relation to including certain persons engaged in a professional or teaching capacity in or for a religious, charitable or educational institution as employees for purposes of eligibility for paid family leave

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The opening paragraph of subdivision 5 of section 201 of 2 the workers' compensation law, as amended by chapter 481 of the laws of 3 2010, is amended to read as follows:

4 "Employee" means a person engaged in the service of an employer in any 5 employment defined in subdivision six of this section, except a minor 6 child of the employer, except a duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed 7 minister, priest or rabbi, a sexton, a christian science reader, or 8 member of a religious order, or an executive officer of a corporation 9 who at all times during the period involved owns all of the issued and 10 outstanding stock of the corporation and holds all of the offices pursu-
11 ant to paragraph (e) of section seven hundred fifteen of the business 12 corporation law or two executive officers of a corporation who at all 13 times during the period involved between them own all of the issued and 14 outstanding stock of such corporation and hold all such offices 15 provided, however, that each officer must own at least one share of 16 stock, except as provided in section two hundred twelve of this article, 17 or an executive officer of an incorporated religious, charitable or 18 educational institution, or persons engaged in a professional or teach-19 ing capacity in or for a religious, charitable or educational institu-20 tion, or volunteers in or for a religious, charitable or educational 21 institution, or persons participating in and receiving rehabilitative 22 services in a sheltered workshop operated by a religious, charitable or 23 educational institution under a certificate issued by the United States

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
