2025-2026 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

September 26, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. GONZALEZ-ROJAS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to extending the authority and oversight of wage boards to include benefits and working conditions and changes the reference to such boards as workers' boards

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. Legislative intent. The legislature finds and declares 2 that:
- 3 1. For significant periods in our history, employers have demonstrated 4 that they can partner with employees to ensure the provision of wages 5 and conditions employees need to succeed in their work and achieve 6 economic security.
- 7 2. In 1960, the state adopted a minimum wage, which has served as a 8 wage floor that has substantially increased well-being for many workers 9 throughout the state.
- 10 3. Since its initial adoption, the economy and the workforce have 11 shifted and evolved in ways that require augmenting the minimum wage act 12 to ensure that workers can provide for themselves and their families.
- 13 4. Many employers have adapted to their employees' changing needs and 14 the shifts in the economy to provide more robust work-related benefits 15 and more productive working conditions, thus enhancing their workers' 16 overall well-being.
- 17 5. However, because existing law does not fully reflect these needs 18 and the changes in the economy and workers' lives, many employers find 19 themselves at a competitive disadvantage when they provide such benefits 20 and working conditions for their workers, and workers who are not as 21 fortunate must overcome greater struggles to succeed and thrive in their 22 careers and in their private lives.
- 23 6. The state's laws must adapt to changes in the economy and needs of 24 workers, and New York's establishment of the minimum wage provides a

1 framework for setting additional minimum standards for benefits and 2 working conditions that can reflect changes in the needs of workers.

3 7. Extending the authority of wage boards under the minimum wage act 4 to consider additional minimum standards for benefits and working condi-5 tions will lead to higher levels of financial stability, health, well-6 being, and satisfaction for workers, reduce the state's expenditures on 7 public benefits, and will create opportunities for employers and workers 8 to collaborate to develop mutually beneficial strategies for workplace 9 improvements and career pathways.

10 § 2. Section 650 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 439 of the 11 laws of 1962, is amended to read as follows:

12 § 650. Statement of public policy. There are persons employed [~~in~~ 13 ~~some occupations~~] in the state of New York at wages, with benefits and 14 under working conditions insufficient to [~~provide adequate maintenance~~ 15 ~~for~~] sustain themselves and their families. Such conditions of employ-16 ment [~~impairs~~] impair the health, [~~efficiency~~] financial security, and 17 well-being of the persons so employed, [~~constitutes~~] constitute unfair 18 competition against other employers and their employees, [~~threatens~~] 19 threaten the stability of industry, [~~reduces~~] reduce the purchasing 20 power of employees, [~~and requires~~] require, in many instances, that 21 wages and benefits be supplemented by the payment of public moneys for 22 relief or other public and private assistance, and result in additional 23 burdens on the state and its people to support those with inadequate 24 benefits and to combat the ills caused by unacceptable working condi-25 tions. Employment of persons at [~~these~~] insufficient rates of pay, with 26 insufficient benefits and under unacceptable working conditions threat-27 ens the health, safety and well-being of the people of this state and 28 injures the overall economy.

29 Accordingly, it is the declared policy of the state of New York that 30 such conditions be eliminated as rapidly as practicable [~~without~~ 31 ~~substantially curtailing opportunities for employment or earning power~~].
32 To this end, minimum wage, minimum benefits and minimum working condi-33 tion standards shall be established and maintained.

34 § 3. Subdivision 3 of section 651 of the labor law, as added by chap-35 ter 619 of the laws of 1960, is amended and four new subdivisions 10, 43 rity act of 1974, as amended, their cash equivalent.

52 agent thereof;

The commissioner shall, on the petition of fifty or more residents of the state engaged in or affected by an occupation or occupations sought to be investigated, cause such an investigation of such occupation or occupations to be conducted. ~~[If, on the basis of information in his possession with or without such an investigation, the commissioner is of the opinion that]~~ The commissioner shall publish notice on the department's website of any petition of fifty or more residents of the state engaged in or affected by an occupation or occupations with respect to wages being paid, benefits being provided, and working conditions being provided that such petition has been received and that an investigation shall be conducted. 3 board shall be established consistent with the provisions of subdivision 4 one of section six hundred fifty-five of this article, except the repre-

7 and provided, further, that the representatives of the employers shall 8 be selected upon the nomination of the New York State Business Council.

12 ~~level such wage order is sufficient to provide adequate maintenance and~~ 13 ~~to protect the health and livelihood of employees subject to such a wage~~

15 3. In addition to the commissioner's power to appoint a workers' board 16 pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the legislature shall have 17 the power, by joint resolution, to direct the commissioner to appoint a 18 workers' board with respect to one or more occupations.

19 § 5. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 653-a to read as 20 follows:

22 1. evaluate and make findings regarding factors that may contribute to 23 why a substantial number of persons employed in the relevant occupation 24 or occupations is receiving insufficient wages and benefits or working 25 under conditions insufficient to protect their health and well-being; 26 and

27 2. make recommendations regarding:

28 (a) compensation standards, including but not limited to minimum wage

36 and to safeguard minimum wages, minimum benefits and minimum working 37 conditions; and

38 3. conduct its inquiries in a manner that encourages engagement, 39 discussion, negotiation, and agreement between employers and employees.

40 § 6. Section 654 of the labor law, as added by chapter 619 of the laws
41 of 1960, is amended to read as follows:

42 § 654. Basis of changes in minimum wage, minimum benefits, and minimum 43 working conditions. In establishing minimum wages, minimum benefits, 44 and minimum working conditions and regulations for any occupation or 45 occupations and any sector or sectors pursuant to the provisions of the 46 following sections of this article, the [~~wage~~] workers' board and the 47 commissioner shall consider the [~~amount~~] wages, benefits and working 48 conditions sufficient to provide adequate maintenance and to protect 49 health and well-being and, in addition, the [~~wage~~] workers' board and 50 the commissioner shall consider the value of the work or classification 51 of work performed, and the wages paid, benefits provided and working 53 ter.

54 § 7. Section 655 of the labor law, as added by chapter 619 of the laws

 6 determine.

7 (c) The board shall also have power to administer oaths and to require 8 by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the 9 production of all books, records, and other evidence relative to any 10 matters under inquiry. Such subpoenas shall be signed and issued by the 11 [~~chairman~~] chair of the board, or any other public member, and shall be 12 served and have the same effect as if issued out of the supreme court.
 13 The board shall have power to cause depositions of witnesses residing 23 minimum working conditions and regulations for the employees in such 24 occupation or occupations as required by section six hundred fifty-

 26 shall be submitted only after a vote of not less than a majority of all 27 its members in support of such report and recommendations. No report or 28 recommendation of a panel shall be submitted without the prior vote of 36 recommendations. (a) The minimum wage, minimum benefits and minimum 37 working conditions recommended by the [~~wage~~] workers' board shall not be 38 [~~in excess of an amount~~] less than what is sufficient to provide 39 adequate maintenance and to protect the health and well-being of the 40 employees. In no event, however, shall any minimum wage recommended by 41 the board be less than the wage specified in section six hundred fifty-42 two of this [~~chapter~~] article, except [~~(1) as expressly otherwise~~ 43 ~~provided in paragraph (c) of this subdivision, and (2)~~] where the board 44 finds conditions of employment are such as to make an hourly rate 45 impracticable, in which event the board may recommend a wage rate other 46 than an hourly rate, provided that such recommended rate carries out the 47 purposes of this article and safeguards the minimum wage specified in 48 section six hundred fifty-two of this [~~chapter~~] article. The board may 49 classify [~~employments~~] employment in any occupation according to the 50 nature of the work rendered and recommend minimum wages, minimum bene-51 fits and minimum working conditions in accordance with such classifica-52 tion. The board may also recommend [~~a~~] minimum [~~wage~~] wages, minimum 53 benefits and minimum working conditions varying with localities if, in 54 the judgment of the board, conditions make such variation appropriate.

55 (b) In addition to recommendations for minimum wages, the [~~wage~~] work-56 ers' board may recommend such regulations as it deems appropriate to 1 carry out the purposes of this article and [~~to safeguard minimum wages~~].

2 Such recommended regulations may include regulations defining the exclu-3 sions from the term "employee" set forth in subdivision five of section 4 six hundred fifty-one of this article. Such recommended regulations may 5 also include, but are not limited to, regulations governing piece rates, 6 incentives, and commissions in relation to time rates; overtime or part-7 time rates; waiting time and call-in pay rates; wage rate provisions 8 governing split shift, excessive spread of hours and weekly guarantees; 9 and allowances for gratuities and, when furnished by the employer to 10 [~~his~~] the employer's employees, for meals, lodging, apparel and other 11 such items, services and facilities.

12 [~~(c) The wage board may also recommend, to the extent necessary in 13 order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment, regu-14 lations for (1) the employment of learners and apprentices, under 15 special certificates issued by the commissioner, at such wages lower 16 than the minimum wage established by this article and subject to such 17 limitations as to time, number, proportion and length of service as 18 shall be prescribed in such regulation, (2) the employment of individ-19 uals whose earning capacity is affected or impaired by youth or age or 20 by physical or mental deficiency or injury, under special certificates 21 issued by the commissioner, at such wages lower than the minimum wage 22 established by this article and for such period as shall be prescribed 23 in such regulation, (3) the establishment of a period not extending 24 beyond seventeen consecutive weeks during which a resort hotel or camp 25 may employ students under special certificates issued by the commis-26 sioner, at such wages lower than the minimum wage established by this arti-27 cle as shall be prescribed in such regulation, and (4) the employment of 28 residential employees in a non-profit making religious, charitable or 29 educational organization or in a non-profit making college or university 30 sorority or fraternity under special certificates issued by the commis-31 sioner at such weekly wage as shall be prescribed in such regulation.~~]

32 § 8. Section 656 of the labor law, as added by chapter 619 of the laws
33 of 1960, is amended to read as follows:

34 § 656. Action by commissioner upon [~~wage~~] workers' board report. When 35 the [~~wage~~] workers' board submits its report and recommendations to the 36 commissioner, the commissioner shall forthwith file them with the secre-
37 tary of the department. Within five days of their receipt, the commis-38 sioner shall publish a notice of such filing in at least ten newspapers 39 of general circulation in the state. Any objections to the report and 40 recommendations shall be filed with the commissioner within fifteen days 41 after such publication. The commissioner may, if [~~he~~] the commissioner 42 deems it appropriate, order oral argument, which shall be scheduled 43 before the commissioner, or such representative as [~~he~~] the commissioner 44 may designate, on five days' notice to the persons who have filed 45 objections to the report and recommendations. Whether or not oral argu-46 ment is scheduled, the commissioner shall by order accept or reject the 47 board's report and recommendations within forty-five days after filing 48 with the secretary of the department, provided that the commissioner may 49 only reject the board's report and recommendations if the commissioner 50 finds no substantial evidence to support such recommendations. [~~The~~ 51 ~~commissioner may by such order~~] In industries that the department deter-52 mines rely predominantly on the appropriation of public funds, if the 53 cost of such recommendation exceeds existing appropriations, the commis-54 sioner may make acceptance of a specific recommendation contingent upon 55 a subsequent appropriation or modify the regulations recommended by the 56 board, provided that such modifications do not have the effect of reduc-

1 ing the minimum wage, minimum benefits and minimum working conditions
2 required under existing rules or regulations. If a specific recommenda-3 tion is rejected because of insufficient appropriations, the commission-4 er shall consult with the commissioner or director of the relevant 5 department or agency to request such appropriation. Such order of the 6 commissioner shall become effective thirty days after publication, in 7 the manner prescribed in this section, of a notice of such order. The 8 commissioner may, within such forty-five days, confer with the wage 9 board, which may make such changes in its report or recommendations as 10 it may deem fit. [~~The commissioner also may, within such forty-five~~ 11 ~~days, remand the matter to the board for such further proceeding as he~~ 12 ~~may direct.~~] The provisions of this article shall in no way restrict any 13 county or municipality from enacting laws or regulations which provide 14 for minimum wages, minimum benefits, or minimum working conditions which 15 are more favorable than those provided pursuant to any order or regu-16 lation issued by the commissioner under this article, nor shall any such 17 enacted laws or regulations be preempted by the provisions of this arti-18 cle.

19 § 9. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 656-a to read as 20 follows:

21 § 656-a. Modifications without workers' board determinations. If an 22 established workers' board fails to make determinations under this 23 section within any three-year period as required pursuant to paragraph 24 (b) of subdivision four of section six hundred fifty-five of this arti-25 cle, the minimum wages and, to the extent applicable, minimum benefits, 26 for the occupation or occupations in question shall be increased in a 27 manner which corresponds to the rate of inflation for the most recent 28 twelve-month period ending June of that year based on the consumer 29 price index for all urban consumers on a national and seasonally 30 unadjusted basis, or a successor index as calculated by the United 31 States department of labor. Such increase shall take effect on the 32 date which is one year after the end of such three-year period and shall 33 account for aggregate inflation over the four years prior to such date.

34 § 10. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 656-b to read 35 as follows:

36 § 656-b. Training. 1. Certification of worker organizations. The 37 department shall certify worker organizations that it finds are quali-38 fied to provide training to the workers affected by the determinations 39 of a workers' board. The department shall establish criteria that a 40 worker organization must meet in order to be certified to provide train-41 ing and provide a process for renewal of certification upon the board's 42 review of the worker organization's compliance with this section. Such 43 criteria shall ensure that a certified worker organization is capable 44 and eligible to provide effective, interactive training on the new stan-45 dards and follow-up written materials and responses to inquiries from 46 workers in the languages in which workers are proficient. The department 47 shall give particular consideration to worker organizations, such as 48 labor unions and worker centers, that have experience training workers.

49 2. Curriculum. The board shall establish requirements for the curricu-50 lum for the training required concerning the applicable minimum compen-51 sation, benefits and working conditions established by the board; the 52 antiretaliation protections established in section two hundred fifteen 53 of this chapter; information on how to enforce section six hundred 54 fifty-six of this article and on how to report violations, including 55 contact information for the department, the board, and any local 56 enforcement agencies, and information on the remedies available for

1 violations; the purposes and functions of the board and information on 2 upcoming hearings, investigations, or other opportunities for workers to 3 become involved in board proceedings; and any updates or changes to the 4 information provided since the most recent training session; information 5 on labor standards in other applicable local, state, and federal laws, 6 rules, and regulations regarding general working conditions or worker 7 health and safety or that are specific to the industry. The board shall 8 review the adequacy of the curriculum requirements at least annually and 9 shall revise the requirements as appropriate.

10 3. Duties of certified worker organizations. A certified worker organ-11 ization shall use a curriculum for its training sessions that meets 12 requirements established by the board; provide trainings that are inter-13 active and conducted in the languages in which the attending workers are 14 proficient; at the end of each training session, provide attending work-15 ers with follow-up written or electronic materials on the topics covered 16 in the training session, in order to fully inform workers of their 17 rights and opportunities; and make itself reasonably available to 18 respond to inquiries from workers during and after training sessions.
19 Such organization may conduct surveys of workers who attend a training 20 session to assess the effectiveness of the training session and industry 21 compliance with applicable laws, rules, and ordinances governing working 22 conditions or worker health and safety.

23 4. Employer duties regarding training. Employers shall submit written 24 documentation to the department to certify that when the board alters 25 wages, benefits or working conditions, each worker shall complete one 26 hour of training that meets the requirements of this section and is 27 provided by a certified worker organization. If requested by a certified 28 worker organization, an employer shall, after a training session 29 provided by the certified worker organization, provide such organization 30 with the names and contact information of the workers who attended the 31 training session, unless a worker opts out. An employee may opt out of 32 having the worker's employer provide the worker's name and contact 33 information to a certified worker organization that provided a training 34 session attended by the worker by submitting a written statement to that 35 effect to the employer.

36 5. Training compensation. Employers shall compensate their employees 37 at their regular hourly rate of wages and benefits for each hour of 38 training completed as required by this section and reimburse any reason-39 able travel expenses associated with attending training sessions not 40 held on the premises of the employees' routine work location.

41 § 11. Section 657 of the labor law, as added by chapter 619 of the 42 laws of 1960, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 102 of the laws of 43 1968 and subdivision 5 as amended by chapter 310 of the laws of 1962, is 44 amended to read as follows:

45 § 657. Appeals from [~~wage~~] orders and regulations. 1. Finality. Any 46 minimum wage, minimum benefits or minimum working conditions order and 47 regulation issued by the commissioner pursuant to this article shall, 48 unless appealed from as provided in this section, be final. The findings 49 of the commissioner as to the facts shall be conclusive on any appeal 50 from an order of the commissioner issued pursuant to [~~sections~~] section 51 six hundred fifty-two, six hundred fifty-six, or six hundred fifty-nine 52 of this article.

53 2. Review by board of standards and appeals. Any person in interest, 54 including a labor organization, eligible representative or employer 55 association, in any occupation for which a minimum wage, minimum bene-56 fits or minimum working conditions order or regulation has been issued

1 under the provisions of this article who is aggrieved by such order or 2 regulation may obtain review before the board of standards and appeals 3 by filing with said board, within forty-five days after the date of the 4 publication of the notice of such order or regulation, a written peti-5 tion requesting that the order or regulation be modified or set aside. A 6 copy of such petition shall be served promptly upon the commissioner and 7 the workers' board issuing the report and recommendations from which the 8 applicable order or regulation arose. On such appeal, the commissioner 9 shall certify and file with the board of standards and appeals a tran-10 script of the entire record, including the testimony and evidence upon 11 which such order or regulation was made and the report of the [~~wage~~] 12 workers' board. The board of standards and appeals, upon the record 13 certified and filed by the commissioner, shall, after oral argument, 14 determine whether the order or regulation appealed from is contrary to 15 law. Within forty-five days after the expiration of the time for the 16 filing of a petition, the board of standards and appeals shall issue an 17 order confirming, amending or setting aside the order or regulation 18 appealed from. The appellate jurisdiction of the board of standards and 19 appeals shall be exclusive and its order final except that the same 20 shall be subject to an appeal taken directly to the appellate division 21 of the supreme court, third judicial department, within sixty days after 22 its order is issued. The commissioner and the workers' board shall each 23 be considered an aggrieved party entitled to take an appeal from an 24 order of the board of standards and appeals.

25 3. Security. The taking of an appeal by an employer to the board of 26 standards and appeals shall in no event operate as a stay of a minimum 27 working conditions order or regulation issued under this article and 28 shall not operate as a stay of a minimum wage or minimum benefits order 29 or regulation issued under this article unless and until, and only so 30 long as, the employer shall have provided security determined by the 31 board of standards and appeals in accordance with this section. The 32 security shall be sufficient to guarantee to the employees affected the 33 payment of the difference between the wage and the cash value of the 34 benefits they receive and the minimum wage and the cash value of the 35 minimum benefits they would be entitled to receive under the terms of 36 the minimum wage order, minimum benefits order or regulation (such 37 [~~difference~~] differences being hereinafter referred to as "underpay-38 ments") in the event that such order or regulation is affirmed by the 39 board of standards and appeals. The security shall be either:

40 a. A bond filed with the board of standards and appeals issued by a 41 fidelity or surety company authorized to do business in this state. The 42 bond shall be sufficient to cover the amount of underpayments due at the 43 time the bond is filed with the board of standards and appeals and the 44 amount of underpayments that can reasonably be expected to accrue within 45 the following sixty days; or

46 b. An escrow account established by the employer [~~in~~] on behalf of 47 employees and deposited in a bank or trust company in this state, of 48 which the employer has notified the board of standards and appeals in 49 writing that [~~he~~] such employer has established such account. The 50 account shall be sufficient to cover the amount of underpayments due at 51 the time of notification to the board of standards and appeals and shall 52 be kept current by the employer depositing therein the amount of under-53 payments accruing each and every pay period. Such deposits shall be made 54 no later than the day on which the wages for each pay period are paya-55 ble. As an alternative thereto, an employer may deposit the amount of 56 underpayments due at the time the deposit is made and the amount of 1 underpayments that can reasonably be expected to accrue within the 2 following sixty days, as determined by the board of standards and 3 appeals. The employer shall keep accurate records showing the total 4 amount of each deposit, the period covered, and the name and address of 5 each employee and the amount deposited to [~~his~~] such employee's account.

6 The employees' escrow account shall be deemed to be a trust fund for the 7 benefit of the employees affected, and no bank or trust company shall 8 release funds in such account without the written approval of the board 9 of standards and appeals.

10 4. Maintenance of security. The commissioner, at the request and on 11 behalf of the board of standards and appeals, shall have the right to 12 inspect the books and records of every employer who appeals from an 13 order or who provides a security in accordance with subdivision [~~eight~~] 14 seven of this section. In the event that the board of standards and 15 appeals finds that the security provided by an employer is insufficient 16 to cover the amount of underpayments, it shall notify the employer to 17 increase the amount of the security. If the employer fails to increase 18 the security to the amount requested within seven days after such 19 notice, the stay shall be terminated. If the board of standards and 20 appeals finds that the amount of the security is excessive, it shall 21 decrease the amount of security required.

22 5. Review of determination as to security. Notwithstanding any 23 provision in this chapter, any determination of the board of standards 24 and appeals with reference to subdivisions three and four of this 25 section shall be reviewable only by a special proceeding under article 26 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules instituted in the 27 supreme court in the third judicial district within ten days after such 28 determination.

29 6. Security on court review. In the event that an appeal is taken from 30 the order of the board of standards and appeals to the supreme court in 31 the third judicial district pursuant to subdivision two of this section, 32 the court may continue the security in effect or require such security 33 as it deems proper.

34 7. [~~Waiver of security. Notwithstanding any provision in this section,~~ 35 ~~the board of standards and appeals may, in its discretion, waive the~~ 36 ~~requirement of a security for an employer who the board of standards and~~ 37 ~~appeals finds is of such financial responsibility that payments to~~ 38 ~~employees of any underpayments due or to accrue are assured without the~~ 39 ~~security provided by this section.~~

40 ~~8-]~~ Stay for other employers. Any employer affected by a minimum wage, 41 minimum benefits or minimum working conditions order or regulation from 42 which an appeal has been taken by another employer to the board of stan-43 dards and appeals or to the supreme court in the third judicial 44 district, may obtain [~~a~~] the employer's own respective stay of 45 proceedings [~~against him~~] with respect to minimum wages or minimum bene-46 fits by providing a security in accordance with subdivisions three and 47 four of this section within thirty days after the filing of the appeal 48 by the other employer.

49 § 12. Section 658 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 443 of the 50 laws of 1981, is amended to read as follows:

51 § 658. Appeals from compliance orders. An appeal pursuant to section 52 two hundred eighteen or two hundred nineteen of this chapter from an 53 order issued by the commissioner directing compliance with any provision 54 of this article or with any minimum wage, minimum benefits or minimum 55 working conditions order or regulation promulgated thereunder, shall not 56 bring under review any minimum wage, minimum benefits or minimum working

1 conditions order or regulation promulgated under this article. The 2 provisions of subdivision two of section six hundred fifty-seven of this 3 article relating to appeals from determinations of the board and the 4 provisions of subdivisions three through [~~seven~~] six of section six 5 hundred fifty-seven of this article shall apply to an appeal from a 6 compliance order.

7 § 13. Section 659 of the labor law, as added by chapter 619 of the 8 laws of 1960, is amended to read as follows:

9 § 659. Reconsideration of [~~wage~~] orders and regulations. 1. By [~~wage~~] 10 workers' board. At any time after a minimum wage, minimum benefits, or 11 minimum working conditions order has been in effect for six months or 12 more, the commissioner, on [~~his~~] the commissioner's own motion or on a 13 petition of fifty or more residents of the state engaged in or affected 14 by the occupation or occupations to which an order is applicable, may 15 reconvene the same [~~wage~~] workers' board or appoint a new [~~wage~~] work-16 ers' board to recommend whether or not the minimum wage, minimum bene-17 fits, minimum working conditions and regulations prescribed by such 18 order should be modified, and the provisions of section six hundred 19 fifty-five through six hundred fifty-seven of this article shall there-20 after apply.

21 2. By commissioner. The commissioner, without referral to the [~~wage~~] 22 workers' board, may, at any time after public hearing, by order propose 23 such modifications of or additions to any regulations as [~~he~~] such 24 commissioner may deem appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this 25 article. Notice of hearing and promulgation of any such order shall be 26 published in accordance with the provisions contained in section six 27 hundred fifty-six of this article. Such order shall be effective thirty 28 days after such publication and section six hundred fifty-seven of this 29 article shall thereafter apply.

30 3. Notwithstanding subdivisions one and two of this section, no 31 modification may be made pursuant to this section which has the effect 32 of reducing the minimum wage, reducing benefits, making working condi-33 tions less favorable to employees, or affecting the regulations in a 34 manner that adversely affects employees of the applicable occupation or 35 occupations or sector or sectors without the unanimous approval of the 36 workers' board which submitted the report out of which arose the appli-37 cable minimum wage, minimum benefits, or minimum working conditions 38 order.

39 § 14. Section 660 of the labor law, as added by chapter 619 of the 40 laws of 1960, is amended to read as follows:

41 § 660. Commissioner's powers of investigation. The commissioner or 44 persons in any occupation in the state;

45 [~~(b)~~] 2. to enter the place of business or employment of any employer 46 for the purpose of [~~(1)~~] (a) examining and inspecting any and all 51 orders and regulations promulgated hereunder are being complied with; 52 and

53 [~~(e)~~] 3. to require from any employer full and correct statements and 54 reports in writing, at such times as the commissioner may deem neces-55 sary, of the wages paid to [~~and~~], the benefits provided to, the hours

1 worked by [~~his~~], and other working conditions applicable to, such 2 employer's employees.

3 § 15. Section 661 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 564 of the 4 laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

21 demand, the employer shall furnish to the commissioner or [~~his~~] the 22 commissioner's duly authorized representative a sworn statement of the 23 hours worked, rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by 24 the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other basis; 25 gross wages; benefits; deductions; and allowances, if any, claimed as 26 part of the minimum wage, for each employee, plus such other information

28 keep such records open to inspection by the commissioner or [~~his~~] the 29 commissioner's duly authorized representative at any reasonable time.
30 Every employer of an employee shall keep a digest and summary of this

44 laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

45 § 662. Penalties. 1. Failure to pay minimum wage or overtime compen-

47 conditions. Any employer or [~~his or her~~] such employer's agent, or the 48 officer or agent of any corporation, partnership, or limited liability 49 company, who pays or agrees to pay to any employee less than the wage 50 applicable under this article, provides benefits less than benefits

5 and imprisonment, for each such offense. Each [~~payment to any employee~~ 6 ~~in any week of less than the wage applicable under this article~~] week 7 during which such a violation occurs shall constitute a separate offense 8 for each such violation.

9 2. Failure to keep records. Any employer or [~~his or her~~] such employ-10 er's agent, or the officer or agent of any corporation, partnership, or 11 limited liability company, who fails to keep the records required under 12 this article or to furnish such records or any information required to 13 be furnished under this article to the commissioner or [~~his or her~~] such 14 commissioner's authorized representative upon request, or who hinders or 20 refuses to make such records accessible to the commissioner or [~~his or~~ 21 ~~her~~] such commissioner's authorized representative, or refuses to 23 required for the proper enforcement of this article to the commissioner 24 or [~~his or her~~] such commissioner's authorized representative, shall be 25 guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction therefor shall be fined not 26 less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars or imprisoned

32 than one year plus one day, or punished by both such fine and imprison-33 ment, for each such offense. Each day's failure to keep the records 34 requested under this article or to furnish such records or information 35 to the commissioner or [~~his or her~~] such commissioner's authorized 36 representative shall constitute a separate offense.

37 § 17. Section 663 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 564 of the 38 laws of 2010, subdivision 3 as amended by chapter 2 of the laws of 2015, 39 is amended to read as follows:

40 § 663. Civil action. 1. By employee. If any employee is paid by [~~his~~ 41 ~~or her~~] their employer less than the wage, is provided benefits less 42 than the minimum benefits, or is subject to working conditions inferior 43 to the minimum working conditions, in each case, to which [~~he or she~~] 44 the employee is entitled under the provisions of this article, [~~he or~~ 45 ~~she~~] the employee shall recover in a civil action the amount of any such 46 [~~underpayments~~] underpayment of wages, the monetary value of the defi-47 ciency in benefits and compensation for deficiency in working condi-48 tions, including any damages suffered as a result thereof, together with 49 costs, all reasonable attorney's fees, prejudgment interest as required 50 under the civil practice law and rules, and unless the employer proves a 51 good faith basis to believe that [~~its underpayment of~~] such deficiency 52 in wages, benefits or working conditions was in compliance with the law, 53 an additional amount as liquidated damages equal to one hundred percent 54 of the total of [~~such underpayments~~] amounts otherwise found to be due 55 pursuant to this subdivision. Any agreement between the employee, and 56 the employer to work for less than [~~such~~] the minimum wage, for less

1 than the minimum benefits or without minimum working conditions shall be 2 no defense to such action.

3 2. By commissioner. On behalf of any employee paid less than the wage, 4 provided with benefits less than the minimum benefits, or subject to 5 working conditions inferior to the minimum working conditions, in each 6 case, to which the employee is entitled under the provisions of this 7 article, the commissioner may bring any legal action necessary, includ-8 ing administrative action, to collect such claim, and the employer shall 9 be required to pay the full amount of the underpayment of wages, the 10 monetary value of the deficiency in benefits, and compensation for defi-11 ciency in working conditions, including any damages suffered as a result 12 thereof, plus costs, and unless the employer proves a good faith basis 13 to believe that [~~its underpayment~~] such deficiency in wages, benefits or 14 working conditions was in compliance with the law, an additional amount 15 as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages shall be calculated by the 16 commissioner as no more than one hundred percent of the total [~~amount of~~ 17 ~~underpayments~~] amounts otherwise found to be due the employee pursuant 18 to this subdivision. In any action brought by the commissioner in a 19 court of competent jurisdiction, liquidated damages shall be calculated 20 as an amount equal to one hundred percent of [~~underpayments~~] the aggre-21 gate amounts otherwise found to be due the employee pursuant to this 22 subdivision.

23 3. By an eligible representative. If any employee is paid by their 24 employer less than the wage, is provided benefits less than the minimum 25 benefits, or is subject to working conditions inferior to the minimum 26 working conditions, in each case, to which the employee is entitled 27 under the provisions of this article, any eligible representative of 28 such employee may bring a civil action to recover the amount of any such 29 underpayment of wages, the monetary value of the deficiency in benefits 30 and compensation for deficiency in working conditions, including any 31 damages suffered as a result thereof, together with costs, all reason-32 able attorney's fees, prejudgment interest as required under the civil 33 practice law and rules, and unless the employer proves a good faith 34 basis to believe that such deficiency in wages, benefits or working 35 conditions was in compliance with the law, an additional amount as 36 liquidated damages equal to one hundred percent of the total of amounts 37 otherwise found to be due pursuant to this subdivision. Any agreement 38 between the employee, and the employer to work for less than the minimum 39 wage, for less than the minimum benefits or without minimum working 40 conditions shall be no defense to such action.

41 4. By the attorney general. On behalf of any employee paid less than 42 the minimum wage, provided with benefits less than the minimum benefits, 43 or subject to working conditions inferior to the minimum working condi-44 tions, in each case, to which the employee is entitled under the 45 provisions of this article, the commissioner may bring any legal action 46 necessary, including administrative action, to collect such claim, and 47 the employer shall be required to pay the full amount of the underpay-48 ment of wages, the monetary value of the deficiency in benefits, and 49 compensation for deficiency in working conditions, including any damages 50 suffered as a result thereof, plus costs, and unless the employer proves 51 a good faith basis to believe that such deficiency in wages, benefits or 52 working conditions was in compliance with the law, an additional amount 53 as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages shall be calculated by the 54 commissioner as no more than one hundred percent of the total amounts 55 otherwise found to be due the employee pursuant to this subdivision. In 56 any action brought by the commissioner in a court of competent jurisdic-

1 tion, liquidated damages shall be calculated as an amount equal to one 2 hundred percent of the aggregate amounts otherwise found to be due the 3 employee pursuant to this subdivision.

4 5. Limitation of time. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an 5 action to recover upon a liability imposed by this article must be 6 commenced within six years. The statute of limitations shall be tolled 7 from the date an employee files a complaint with the commissioner or the 8 commissioner commences an investigation, whichever is earlier, until an 9 order to comply issued by the commissioner becomes final, or where the 10 commissioner does not issue an order, until the date on which the 11 commissioner notifies the complainant that the investigation has 12 concluded. Investigation by the commissioner shall not be a prerequisite 13 to nor a bar against a person bringing a civil action under this arti-
14 cle.

15 [~~4~~] 6. Attorneys' fees. In any civil action by an employee or by the 16 commissioner, the employee or commissioner shall have the right to 17 collect attorneys' fees and costs incurred in enforcing any court judg-18 ment. Any judgment or court order awarding remedies under this section 19 shall provide that if any amounts remain unpaid upon the expiration of 20 ninety days following issuance of judgment, or ninety days after expira-21 tion of the time to appeal and no appeal therefrom is then pending, 22 whichever is later, the total amount of judgment shall automatically 23 increase by fifteen percent.

24 § 18. Severability clause. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdi-25 vision, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of 26 competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, 27 impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in 28 its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section 29 or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judg-30 ment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of 31 the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such 32 invalid provisions had not been included herein.

33 § 19. This act shall take effect one year after it shall have become a 34 law.
