IN ASSEMBLY

(Prefiled)

January 8, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. STECK, SEAWRIGHT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to enacting the New York State Attorney General Firearms Enforcement act

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "New York State Attorney General Firearms Enforcement act".

3 § 2. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 76 to read
4 as follows:

5 § 76. Firearm enforcement. 1. For purposes of this section, the 6 following terms shall have the following meanings:

7 (a) "Firearm" has the same meaning as that term is defined in 18
8 U.S.C. 921(a)(3), but shall not include an "antique firearm" as that 9 term is defined in 18 U.S.C. 921(a)(16).

10 (b) "Illegal firearm" means any firearm that is prohibited from being 11 possessed or sold in the state of New York pursuant to state or federal 12 law.

13 (c) "Individual seller of firearms" means any person who sells or 14 transfers a firearm to another person without being a licensed firearms 15 dealer.

16 (d) "Rapid-fire modification device" means any bump stock, trigger
17 crank, binary trigger system, burst trigger system, or any other device 18 that is designed to accelerate the rate of fire of a semi-automatic 19 firearm, rifle or shotgun.

20 (e) "Retail firearms dealer" means any person who is licensed to sell 21 firearms at retail.

22 2. The attorney general shall have the power and duty to:

23 (a) Investigate and prosecute any individual seller of firearms or 24 retail firearms dealer who knowingly sells an illegal firearm or rapid-

1 fire modification device to a resident of the state of New York or to an 2 individual who purchases a firearm or rapid-fire modification device on 3 behalf of a New York state resident or who knowingly sells a firearm or 4 rapid-fire modification device to a resident of the state of New York or 5 to an individual who purchases a firearm or rapid-fire modification 6 device on behalf of a New York state resident without contacting the New 7 York state police for authorization pursuant to section two hundred
8 twenty-eight of this chapter and any other law, rule or regulation.

9 (b) Seek and obtain injunctive relief to prevent any individual seller
10 of firearms or retail firearms dealer from knowingly selling an illegal 11 firearm or rapid-fire modification device to a resident of the state of 12 New York or to an individual who purchases a firearm or rapid-fire
13 modification device on behalf of a New York state resident or to prevent 14 any individual seller of firearms or retail firearms dealer from know-15 ingly selling a firearm or rapid-fire modification device to a resident 16 of the state of New York or to an individual who purchases a firearm or 17 rapid-fire modification device on behalf of a New York state resident 18 without contacting the New York state police for authorization pursuant 19 to section two hundred twenty-eight of this chapter and any other law, 20 rule or regulation.

21 (c) Investigate and prosecute any individual seller of firearms or 22 retail firearms dealer should they knowingly sell ammunition to a resi-
23 dent of the state of New York or to an individual who purchases ammuni-
24 tion on behalf of a New York state resident without contacting the New 25 York state police for authorization pursuant to section two hundred
26 twenty-eight of this chapter and any other law, rule or regulation.

27 (d) Seek and obtain injunctive relief to prevent any individual seller
28 of firearms or retail firearms dealer from knowingly selling ammunition
29 to a resident of the state of New York or to an individual who purchases 30 ammunition on behalf of a New York state resident without contacting the 31 New York state police for authorization pursuant to section two hundred 32 twenty-eight of this chapter and any other law, rule or regulation.

33 3. The attorney general shall have the power to enforce the provisions 34 of this section by bringing civil and criminal actions in the state
35 courts of New York.

36 § 3. Severability clause. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivi-37 sion, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of 38 competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, 39 impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in 40 its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section 41 or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judg-42 ment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of 43 the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such 44 invalid provisions had not been included herein.

45 § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 46 it shall have become a law.
