AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the facilitating access to e-books for libraries act

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "facilitating 2 access to e-books for libraries act".

3 § 2. The education law is amended by adding a new section 286 to read 4 as follows:

5 § 286. Access to electronic books and digital audiobooks. 1. For the 6 purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following 7 meanings:

8 a. "Digital audiobook" means a published work that is in the form of a 9 voice recording (narrated) and is released as a digital audio file.

10 b. "Electronic book" means a published work that is in written form 11 and is released as a digital text file.

12 c. "Electronic literary materials" means digital audiobooks and/or 13 electronic books.

14 d. "Libraries" includes:

15 (1) a public library as described in subdivision two of section two 16 hundred fifty-three of this part, as well as any public library estab-
17 lished pursuant to the provisions of subdivision one of section two 18 hundred fifty-five of this part;

19 (2) an association library as described in subdivision two of section 20 two hundred fifty-three of this part;

1 lished pursuant to the provisions of subdivision four of section two 2 hundred fifty-five of this part;

3 (5) reference libraries as described in subdivision one of section two 4 hundred fifty-three of this part; and

5 (6) circulating libraries as described in subdivision one of section 6 two hundred fifty-three this part.

7 e. "Public library system" shall have the same meaning as such term is 8 defined in subdivision one of section two hundred seventy-two of this 9 part.

10 f. "School library system" means a system established pursuant to the 11 provisions of section two hundred eighty-two of this part.

12 g. "Reference and research library resources systems" shall have the 13 same meaning as such term is defined in subdivision two of section two 14 hundred seventy-two of this part.

15 h. "Publisher" means any person engaged in the manufacture, promulga-16 tion, license, and/or sale of books, audiobooks, journals, magazines, 17 newspapers, or other literary productions including those in the form of 18 electronic literary materials.

19 i. "Aggregator" means any person engaged in the licensing of access to 20 electronic literary material collections that include electronic liter-
21 ary material from multiple publishers and provides a core platform 22 service used by libraries for the lending or distribution of electronic 23 literary materials.

24 j. "A cooperative purchasing agreement" means an agreement authorized 25 by the governing bodies of a library, public library system, or school 26 library system jointly establishing terms for negotiations and contracts 27 with publishers and aggregators regarding the purchase or license of 28 electronic literary materials.

29 2. Libraries, public library systems, and school library systems may 30 enter into cooperative purchasing agreements for the purpose of negoti-31 ating and entering into contracts with publishers or aggregators to 32 purchase or license electronic literary materials.

33 3. A contract between a publisher or aggregator and a library, public 34 library system, school library system, or reference and research library 35 resources system to purchase or license electronic literary materials
36 shall not restrict the library, public library system, school library 37 system, or reference and research library resources system from disclos-
38 ing pricing information contained within purchase or license agreements 39 to other libraries, public library systems, school library systems, or 40 reference and research library resources systems.

41 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 42 it shall have become a law and shall only apply to contracts entered 43 into on or after such effective date.
