AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to enacting the "right to home inspection act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "right to home inspection act".

3 § 2. The article heading of article 14 of the real property law, as 4 added by chapter 456 of the laws of 2001, is amended to read as follows:

5 PROPERTY CONDITION DISCLOSURE AND RIGHT TO INSPECTION

6 IN THE SALE OF RESIDENTIAL REAL

7 PROPERTY

8 § 3. Section 461 of the real property law is amended by adding nine 9 new subdivisions 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15 to read as follows:

10 7. "Inspection" means the process by which a home inspector observes 11 and provides, pursuant to the transfer of title of residential real 12 property, condominium units, or cooperative apartments, a written evalu-13 ation of readily accessible components of the residential structure 14 including, but not limited to, heating, cooling, plumbing and electrical 15 systems, structural components, foundation, roof, masonry structure, 16 exterior and interior components and any other related residential hous-
17 ing components and, for the purposes of condominium units and cooper-18 ative apartments, and, solely to the extent readily accessible from and 19 relevant to the unit and customarily observed in the course of such 20 inspection, any associated common areas.

21 8. "Inspection period" means the period under which a prospective
22 buyer of residential real property has the right to have such property 23 inspected by a licensed home inspector under subdivision one of section 24 four hundred sixty-seven of this article, beginning the day after the 25 buyer receives a fully signed purchase agreement.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 9. "Buyer" means a person or entity, excluding relatives of a seller, 2 who makes a purchase offer to a seller of a home, or who has entered 3 into a purchase agreement for a home with a seller.

4 10. "Home" means a residential real property containing not more than 5 four separate units.

6 11. "Purchase agreement" means a binding real estate purchase contract 7 for a home that would, upon acceptance and signing by both buyer and 8 seller, and subject to satisfaction of any contingencies, require the 9 buyer to accept a transfer of title.

10 12. "Purchase offer" means any verbal or written proposal submitted to 11 a seller or seller's agent by a prospective buyer or buyer's agent for 12 purchase of a home.

13 13. "Relative" means the spouse, sibling, child, parent, grandparent, 14 grandchild, great-grandchild, or great-grandparent of an individual.

15 14. "Seller" means any person or entity who is the legal owner of a 16 home (or, one of those legally authorized to convey the interest in a 17 home when it is held in an estate or trust) to whom a purchase offer for 18 a home is made by a buyer and/or who has entered into a purchase agree-19 ment for sale of the home with a buyer.

20 15. "Ancillary inspection or test" means any additional evaluation a 21 buyer may choose to obtain, such as water quality, environmental testing 22 or pest evaluation.

23 § 4. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 467 to 24 read as follows:

25 § 467. Right to inspection. 1. Notwithstanding any law to the contra-26 ry, except as otherwise provided in this section, a buyer of a home
27 shall have the right to have such home inspected by a home inspector 28 licensed under article twelve-B of this chapter of their choice, within 29 ten business days, not to exceed fourteen calendar days, beginning on 30 the day after the buyer's receipt of a purchase agreement signed by both 31 parties, or longer as the seller and buyer may agree in writing, of 32 receipt by the buyer of a purchase agreement for sale of a seller's 33 home, signed and dated in agreement by both the buyer and seller. Such 34 right shall not be precluded by any evaluation undertaken by or on 35 behalf of the buyer or others in advance of a signed purchase agreement.

36 2. (a) No seller of a home, or agent thereof, shall condition the 37 acceptance of a purchase offer on the buyer's agreement to waive, limit, 38 restrict or otherwise forego the buyer's right to have such home
39 inspected except when the sale of the home is to occur at an auction.

40 (b) No seller shall accept an offer to purchase from any buyer or 41 agent thereof who, in advance of the seller's acceptance of the offer, 42 informs the seller either directly or indirectly that the buyer intends 43 to waive in whole or in part the buyer's right to inspection; provided, 44 however, that the seller may accept such an offer without violating this 45 section if the buyer is: (i) a relative of the seller; or (ii) the 46 former spouse of the seller and the sale of the structure or unit is 47 being made pursuant to a judgment or order.

48 (c) (i) The department of state shall develop a form explaining the 49 inspection right under this section. Such form shall be signed by both a 50 buyer and seller before or at the first purchase offer or purchase 51 agreement, whichever is executed first.

52 (ii) The language from the form developed pursuant to subparagraph (i) 53 of this paragraph shall be included in all brokerage agreements, offers 54 and contracts.

55 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require, mandate or 56 otherwise compel a buyer to obtain an inspection following the accept-

1 ance by the seller of a purchase offer. The buyer's right to obtain an 2 inspection shall expire if no inspection occurs within ten business days
3 or fourteen calendar days, whichever is shorter, pursuant to subdivision 4 one of this section, or longer as agreed upon by the seller and buyer in 5 writing, of the seller's acceptance of a buyer's purchase offer.

6 4. The seller shall provide reasonable access to the home for 7 inspection during the inspection period. If seller-caused delay or 8 denial of access materially prevents completion of an inspection during 9 the inspection period, the inspection period shall be extended for a 10 reasonable time to permit completion of the inspection. After three 11 seller-requested reschedules, the buyer may cancel the purchase agree-12 ment and recover any deposits and documented costs.

13 5. Consistent with section four hundred forty-four-g of this chapter, 14 an inspection report prepared for a buyer pursuant to this section shall 15 be confidential to such buyer. Such buyer shall not be required, by 16 agreement or otherwise, to disclose such inspection report to any sell-17 er, agent, broker, or other person as a condition of contract formation, 18 negotiation, or closing, except as required by law. Nothing in this 19 section shall be construed to prohibit such buyer from voluntarily
20 disclosing such inspection report or from sharing such inspection report 21 with advisors, contractors, or other persons of such buyer's choosing.

22 6. The buyer may cancel the purchase agreement at or before five 23 o'clock p.m. on the last day of the inspection period if unsatisfied 24 with the inspection results, and shall be provided a full refund of 25 deposits, issued promptly to the buyer.

26 7. Any seller who fails to comply with the provisions of this section 27 shall be liable to the buyer for all damages caused by such failure to 28 comply and shall be subject to assessment of a civil penalty not to 29 exceed four percent of the last publicly listed asking price of the home 30 at the time of the violation or ten thousand dollars, whichever is 31 greater. A violation of this section by an agent shall be considered an 32 unfair and deceptive act or practice as defined in section three hundred 33 forty-nine of the general business law. The attorney general may take 34 such action as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this 35 section.

36 8. The department of state, in consultation with the department of 37 financial services and the attorney general, shall promulgate any rules 38 and regulations necessary to effectuate the provisions of this section.

39 § 5. Subdivision 1 of section 462 of the real property law, as added 40 by chapter 456 of the laws of 2001, is amended and a new subdivision 2-a 41 is added to read as follows:

42 1. Except as is provided in section four hundred sixty-three of this 43 article, every seller of residential real property pursuant to a real 44 estate purchase contract shall complete and sign a property condition 45 disclosure statement as prescribed by subdivision two of this section 46 and a right to inspection statement under subdivision two-a of this 47 section and cause [~~it~~] such statements, or a copy thereof, to be deliv-48 ered to a buyer or buyer's agent prior to the signing by the buyer of a 49 binding contract of sale. A copy of the property condition disclosure 50 statement and the right to inspection statement containing the signa-
51 tures of both seller and buyer shall be attached to the real estate
52 purchase contract. A copy of the right-to-inspection advisory statement 53 signed by the buyer and seller shall also be attached to the real estate 54 purchase contract. Nothing contained in this article [~~or this~~], the 55 disclosure statement or the right to inspection statement is intended to 56 prevent the parties to a contract of sale from entering into agreements

1 of any kind or nature with respect to the physical condition of the 2 property to be sold, including, but not limited to, agreements for the 3 sale of real property "as is".

4 2-a. The following shall be the right to inspection statement:

5 "New York State Right to Home Inspection Advisory:

6 New York follows the rule of caveat emptor, meaning buyers are respon-7 sible for evaluating the condition of a home before purchase. Under Real 8 Property Law section 467, a buyer has the right to have the home
9 inspected by a licensed home inspector, at the buyer's expense, within 10 the inspection period. Buyers may not waive this right in a purchase 11 offer, and sellers may not condition acceptance of an offer on such a 12 waiver. Sellers and agents must provide reasonable access for inspection
13 and may not obstruct or interfere with the inspection process. A buyer 14 may cancel the purchase agreement during the inspection period if unsat-
15 isfied with the inspection results, in accordance with Real Property Law
16 section 467."

17 § 6. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-
18 ing the date on which it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, 19 the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation neces-20 sary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are 21 authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.
