MEMORIALIZING Governor Kathy Hochul to proclaim October 4-10, 2026, as Banned Books Week in the State of New York

WHEREAS, It is the custom of this Legislative Body to recognize official weeks that are set aside to celebrate the freedom to read and to draw attention to banned and challenged books; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to memorialize Governor Kathy Hochul to proclaim October 4-10, 2026, as Banned Books Week in the State of New York, in conjunction with the observance of National Banned Books Week; and

WHEREAS, Banned Books Week is an annual awareness campaign promoted by the American Library Association and Amnesty International, that celebrates the freedom to read, draws attention to banned and challenged books, and highlights persecuted individuals; and

WHEREAS, PEN America defines a school book ban as any action taken against a book based on its content and as a result of parent or community challenges, administrative decisions, or in response to direct or threatened action by governmental officials, that leads to a book being either completely removed from availability to students, or where access to a book is restricted or diminished; and

WHEREAS, Held since September of 1982, the United States campaign stresses the importance of ensuring the availability of those unorthodox or unpopular viewpoints to all who wish to read them and the requirement to keep material publicly available so people can develop their own conclusions and opinions; and

WHEREAS, The international campaign notes individuals persecuted because of the writings they produce, circulate or read; and

WHEREAS, Some of the events that occur during Banned Books Week are The Virtual Read-Out and The First Amendment Film Festival; and

WHEREAS, According to a study, PEN America found that 6,870 school book bans were enacted during the 2024-25 school year, across 23 states and 87 public school districts; and

WHEREAS, The study found that the banned books are often by authors of color, LGBTQ+ authors, and women, and include topics regarding racism, sexuality, gender, and history; and

WHEREAS, It is imperative that the citizens of this great Empire State have access to all literature, either controversial or non-controversial, which supports our nation's First Amendment guaranteeing the freedom of expression by prohibiting Congress from restricting the press or the rights of individuals to speak freely; now, therefore, be it
