AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to use of accrued sick time, compensation time or vacation time

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The civil service law is amended by adding a new section
2 159-e to read as follows:

3 § 159-e. Payment in lieu of workers' compensation payments. 1. Any 4 public officer, employee of the state, county, community college, public 5 authority, public benefit corporation, board of cooperative educational 6 services (BOCES), vocational education and extension board, or a school 7 district enumerated in section one of chapter five hundred sixty-six of 8 the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-seven, municipality, school district 9 or any employee of a participating employer in the New York state and 10 local employees' retirement system or any employee of a participating 11 employer in the New York state teachers' retirement system who is 12 required to serve a waiting period pursuant to the workers' compensation 13 law, or who is not receiving indemnity benefits as a result of the 14 controversion of their claim, may use any accrued time, including but 15 not limited to, sick time, compensation time, personal time, or vacation 16 time, during such waiting period. An employer shall not require an 17 employee to utilize any accrued time during such waiting period or peri-18 od of controversion.

19 2. Where an employee has used accrued time, including but not limited 20 to sick time, compensation time, personal time or vacation time, and it 21 is subsequently determined that no waiting period is required, or the 22 employee is determined to have been entitled to benefits during a period 23 of controversion, the employee shall be entitled to full restoration of 24 time charged.

25 3. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any employee
26 subject to a collective bargaining agreement. An employee organization 27 may, pursuant to collective bargaining, opt in to the provisions of this 28 section on behalf of those public employees it is either certified or

1 recognized to represent, within the meaning of article fourteen of this 2 chapter, or may alternatively bargain for benefits greater or less than 3 those provided for by this section. An employee organization that has 4 opted in to the provisions of this section may, pursuant to collective 5 bargaining, opt out of it as is mutually agreed upon between the employ-6 ee organization and any public employer.

7 4. Nothing set forth in this section shall be construed to impede,
8 infringe or diminish the rights and benefits that accrue to employees
9 and employers through collective bargaining agreements, or otherwise 10 diminish the integrity of the collective bargaining relationship.

11 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
