AN ACT to authorize Michael Kilbride to receive an accidental disability retirement

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Michael Kilbride, who was employed by the office of court administration from November 28, 1994 until July 28, 2009, and who was critically injured in January 14, 2009 as a result of an injury on the job and was unable to return to work, and who was denied an accidental disability retirement from the New York state and local retirement system, and who, as of the effective date of this act, is on regular service disability or receiving an ordinary disability benefit, shall be entitled to reapply for an accidental disability retirement from the New York state and local retirement system if, within one year of the effective date of this act, he shall file a written request with the state comptroller.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
