

STATE OF NEW YORK

10438

IN SENATE

May 15, 2026

Introduced by Sen. C. RYAN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to allowing certain physically disabled individuals to complete live-fire range training course and proficiency demonstration requirements for a concealed carry license while sitting

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 19 of section 400.00 of the penal law, as added
2 by chapter 371 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:
3 19. Prior to the issuance or renewal of a license under paragraph (f) 4 of subdivision two of this section, issued or renewed on or after the 5 effective date of this subdivision, an applicant shall complete an 6 in-person live firearms safety course conducted by a duly authorized
7 instructor with curriculum approved by the division of criminal justice
8 services and the superintendent of state police, and meeting the follow-
9 ing requirements: (a) a minimum of sixteen hours of in-person live 10 curriculum approved by the division of criminal justice services and the 11 superintendent of state police, conducted by a duly authorized instruc-12 tor approved by the division of criminal justice services, and shall 13 include but not be limited to the following topics: (i) general firearm
14 safety; (ii) safe storage requirements and general secure storage best 15 practices; (iii) state and federal gun laws; (iv) situational awareness; 16 (v) conflict de-escalation; (vi) best practices when encountering law
17 enforcement; (vii) the statutorily defined sensitive places in subdivi-18 sion two of section 265.01-e of this chapter and the restrictions on 19 possession on restricted places under section 265.01-d of this chapter;
20 (viii) conflict management; (ix) use of deadly force; (x) suicide
21 prevention; and (xi) the basic principles of marksmanship; and (b) a 22 minimum of two hours of a live-fire range training course, provided 23 however, if an applicant has a physical disability that prevents such 24 applicant from being able to stand up or remain standing, and such 25 applicant provides medical information necessary to verify the existence 26 of such physical disability, such live-fire range training course and

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD04391-03-6

1 proficiency demonstration requirements may be completed while sitting 2 down. The applicant shall be required to demonstrate proficiency by 3 scoring a minimum of eighty percent correct answers on a written test 4 for the curriculum under paragraph (a) of this subdivision and the 5 proficiency level determined by the rules and regulations promulgated by 6 the division of criminal justice services and the superintendent of 7 state police for the live-fire range training under paragraph (b) of 8 this subdivision. Upon demonstration of such proficiency, a certificate 9 of completion shall be issued to such applicant in the applicant's name 10 and endorsed and affirmed under the penalties of perjury by such duly 11 authorized instructor. An applicant required to complete the training 12 required herein prior to renewal of a license issued prior to the effec-13 tive date of this subdivision shall only be required to complete such 14 training for the first renewal of such license after such effective 15 date.

16 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.