-- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the judiciary law, in relation to providing additional protection to judges and their family members under the Judicial Security Act

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraphs (b) and (c) of subdivision 1 of section 859 of 2 the judiciary law, as added by section 2 of part F of chapter 55 of the 3 laws of 2024, are amended to read as follows:

4 (b) "Immediate family" shall mean, for each eligible individual, the 5 spouse, former spouse, domestic partner, former domestic partner, 6 parent, child, and sibling.

7 (c) "Personal information" shall include the following for an eligible 8 individual and, if such individual so indicates as provided in subpara-9 graph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision two of this section, for the 10 members of their immediate family: (i) home address, including primary 11 residence and secondary residences; (ii) unlisted telephone number;
12 (iii) personal cell phone number; (iv) personal email address; (v)
13 social security number; (vi) driver's license number; (vii) license 14 plate number; (viii) marital status and identity of any present and 15 former spouse or domestic partner; (ix) identity of children [~~under the~~ 16 ~~age of eighteen~~]; (x) name and address of a school or day care facility
17 attended by an immediate family member; (xi) bank account number; (xii)
18 credit or debit card number; and (xiii) personal identification number 19 (PIN).

20 § 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 859 of the judiciary
21 law, as added by section 2 of part F of chapter 55 of the laws of 2024, 22 is amended to read as follows:

23 (a) An eligible individual or their representative may submit a writ-
24 ten request to their employer or former employer. To be enforceable, a 25 written request shall be signed by an eligible individual, or their 26 representative, and specify:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD14929-01-6

1 (i) those items of personal information that the eligible individual
2 wishes to be kept from being made public;

3 (ii) the identity of members of the eligible individual's immediate 4 family and whether, for purposes of the written request, their personal 5 information should be deemed to include that of such immediate family 6 members; ~~and~~

7 (iii) each person, business, association, and public or private agency 8 that the eligible individual wishes to bar from making public the 9 personal information of such eligible individual; and 10 (iv) if known, the specific record or records held by such person, 11 business, association or public or private entity containing the items 12 of personal information requested to be kept from being made public, and 13 the place within such record or records where those items are located.

14 § 3. Subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of 15 section 859 of the judiciary law, as added by section 2 of part F of 16 chapter 55 of the laws of 2024, are amended to read as follows:

17 (i) If a written request has been properly submitted and is complete, 18 the employer for an active or former judge or justice of the unified 19 court system or active or former judge of the housing part of the civil 20 court of the city of New York, as appropriate, shall, within five busi-
21 ness days of receipt of such written request from an eligible individ-22 ual, notify each person, business, association, and public or private 23 agency identified in the written request that (A) within seventy-two 24 hours of receipt of such notification, that such person, business, asso-25 ciation, and public or private agency must cease making public the 26 personal information of the eligible individual identified in such 27 request, and (B) they must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the 28 personal information of the eligible individual is not made available on 29 any website or subsidiary website controlled by that person, business, 30 or association. For purposes of this subparagraph, notification shall be 31 by certified mail, return receipt requested, either at the recipient's
32 last known residence (if recipient is a person) or at the recipient's 33 principal office (which shall be the location at which the office of the 34 chief executive officer of the recipient is generally located), or by 35 electronic mail or other means as shall be reasonably determined to 36 provide notice to such recipient.

37 (ii) If a written request has been properly submitted and is complete, 38 the employer of an active or former federal judge of a federal court
39 established in New York may notify each person, business, association, 40 and public or private agency identified in the written request that (A) 41 within seventy-two hours of receipt of such notification, they must 42 cease making public the personal information of the eligible individual 43 identified in such request, and (B) they must make reasonable efforts to 44 ensure that the personal information of the eligible individual is not 45 made available on any website or subsidiary website controlled by that 46 person, business, or association. For purposes of this subparagraph, 47 notification may be by certified mail, return receipt requested, either 48 at the recipient's last known residence (if the recipient is a person) 49 or at the recipient's principal office (which shall be the location at 50 which the office of the chief executive officer of the recipient is 51 generally located), or by electronic mail or other means as shall be 52 reasonably determined to provide notice to such recipient.

53 § 4. Subdivision 2 of section 859 of the judiciary law is amended by 54 adding a new paragraph (d) to read as follows:

55 (d) For the purposes of this subdivision: (i) the chief administrator 56 of the courts shall be deemed the employer of a state-paid judge or

1 justice of the unified court system, and of a judge of the housing part 2 of the civil court of the city of New York; and (ii) in the event that 3 an eligible individual requests that a county clerk cease making public 4 the residential address of an immediate family member over the age of 5 eighteen, the written consent of such family member shall first be 6 obtained and shall be included with the written request submitted by the 7 eligible individual to their employer or former employer.

8 § 5. Subdivision 3 of section 859 of the judiciary law, as added by 9 section 2 of part F of chapter 55 of the laws of 2024, is amended to 10 read as follows:

11 3. Recipient of notification not to make an eligible individual's 12 personal information public. (a) After a person, business, association, 13 or public or private agency has received a notification pursuant to 14 paragraph (c) of subdivision two of this section, they shall have seven-15 ty-two hours to cease making public the personal information of the 16 eligible individual identified in such notification.

17 (b) The prohibition against the public disclosure of such personal 18 information shall continue until the recipient of the notification
19 receives:

20 (i) a notarized letter from the eligible individual providing a 21 release from the prohibition for a limited period or for a limited
22 purpose, and specifying the personal information that may be disclosed, 23 the purpose of the disclosure, and the authorized recipients and/or 24 specific duration of the disclosure;

25 (ii) a notarized letter from the eligible individual, or their employ-26 er or former employer, stating that the written request submitted pursu-27 ant to subdivision two of this section has been withdrawn in its entire-28 ty;

29 (iii) upon the death of the eligible individual, an authorization to 30 release such personal information received from the court-appointed 31 representative of the estate of the eligible individual; or

32 (iv) a court order authorizing the release of such personal informa-33 tion.

34 § 6. Section 859 of the judiciary law is amended by adding a new 35 subdivision 6 to read as follows:

36 6. The chief administrator of the courts may develop procedures neces-
37 sary to prevent the disclosure of personal information in the possession 38 of the unified court system regarding eligible individuals and members 39 of their immediate family.

40 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately.
