[2] 3. No board of elections employee shall remain on the board of elections payroll while also a candidate for an office who has an election overseen by the board at which they are employed, without prior authorization by a majority vote of the board of elections commissioners and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the state board.

(a) The state board shall promulgate rules and regulations relating to the circumstances that may permit a board of elections to authorize an employee who is also a candidate for an office who has an election overseen by the board at which they are employed to remain employed, provided that such employee be restricted from working on matters directly related to the election in the jurisdiction in which the employee is a candidate and any other restrictions set forth by state board rules and regulations.

(b) For the purposes of this article, a board of elections employee shall be deemed a candidate for elective office upon the filing of a designating or nominating petition for such office or, where nominations for such office are made other than by petition, upon acceptance of a nomination. Such employee may remain in "leave without pay" status until such time as their candidacy shall cease, or upon the day following the certification of election results for such office, whichever comes first.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, when there are no primary elections for the office being sought by a candidate that is employed by the board of elections, that candidate may remain on the board of elections payroll for no more than ninety days prior to a general election.

(d) The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to unpaid party positions.

(b) An employee or commissioner who did not know and could not reasonably have known of such registration, filing, or expenditure at the time of such employee or commissioner's formation, employment, or exertion of operational control over such political action committee shall not be deemed in violation of this section, but shall divest such involvement within thirty days of obtaining knowledge thereof.

(c) A violation of any of the provisions of this subdivision shall be cause for discipline by the board of elections, including removal of the board of elections employee pursuant to section 3-300 of this title, or removal of the election commissioner pursuant to section 3-200 of this article as applicable.
