AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring intervention in incidents involving incarcerated individuals

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 837-y
2 to read as follows:

3 § 837-y. Duty to intervene; violence involving incarcerated individuals. 1. For the purposes of this section:

4 (a) "police officer" means a person designated as such in subdivision
5 thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law.

6 (b) "peace officer" means a person listed in section 2.10 of the crim-
7 inal procedure law.

8 2. Every police officer, peace officer and employee of a correctional 9 facility, as defined in section two of the correction law, shall be
10 required to intervene when they witness any incident of violence involv-
11 ing an incarcerated individual and another police officer, peace officer
12 or employee of a correctional facility, to stop such incident in a
13 manner conducive to keeping the peace and preventing violence, injuries
14 and/or death.

15 3. Any police officer, peace officer or employee of a correctional 16 facility who fails to intervene in violation of this section shall be 17 guilty of a class E felony.

18 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
