7 ing is misleading in a material respect. In determining whether any 8 advertising is misleading, there shall be taken into account (among 9 other things) not only representations made by statement, word, design, 10 device, sound or any combination thereof, but also the extent to which 11 the advertising fails to reveal facts material in the light of such 12 representations with respect to the commodity or employment to which the 13 advertising relates under the conditions prescribed in said advertise-
14 ment, or under such conditions as are customary or usual. For purposes 15 of this article, with respect to the advertising of an employment oppor-
16 tunity, it shall be deemed "misleading in a material respect" to either 17 fail to reveal whether the employment available or being offered 18 requires or is conditioned upon the purchasing or leasing of supplies, 19 material, equipment or other property or whether such employment is on a 20 commission rather than a fixed salary basis and, if so, whether the 21 salaries advertised are only obtainable if sufficient commissions are 22 earned.

23 2. Any written or electronic communication which simulates a document 24 authorized, issued or approved by any court, official, agency of this

1 cial governmental entity, foreign or domestic, or which creates a false 2 impression as to such document's source, authorization or approval,
3 shall be considered false advertising unless the person, firm, corpo-
4 ration or association, or agent or employee thereof, has received 5 express permission from such court, official, or agency for the use of 6 such document. This subdivision shall be construed to prohibit any false 7 representation or implication, written or verbal, that a person, firm, 8 corporation or association, or agent or employee thereof, selling a 9 commodity or service is vouched for, approved of, bonded by, operating 10 with or on behalf of, or otherwise affiliated with this state or a poli-11 tical subdivision thereof, or of another state or official governmental 12 entity, foreign or domestic, unless such person, firm, corporation or 13 association, or agent or employee thereof, has received express permis-14 sion from such state or political subdivision for such affiliation.

15 3. An employer shall not be liable under this section as a result of a 16 failure to disclose all material facts relating to terms and conditions 17 of employment if the aggrieved person has not suffered actual pecuniary 18 damage as a result of the misleading advertising of an employment oppor-
19 tunity or if the employer has, prior to the aggrieved person suffering 20 any pecuniary damage, disclosed in writing to that person a full and 21 accurate description of the kind, character, terms and conditions of the 22 employment opportunity.

23 [~~3-~~] 4. It shall constitute false advertising to display or announce, 24 in print or broadcast advertising, the price of an item after deduction
25 of a rebate unless the actual selling price is displayed or announced, 26 and clear and conspicuous notice is given in the advertisement that a 27 mail-in rebate is required to achieve the lower net price.

28 § 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 29 have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or
