IN SENATE

January 14, 2025

Introduced by Sen. MURRAY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Women's Issues

AN ACT to amend the public health law and the family court act, in relation to notice of abortions performed on unemancipated minors

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative purpose and findings. It is the intent of this 2 legislature in enacting this parental notice provision to further the 3 important and compelling state interests of protecting minors against 4 their own immaturity, fostering the family structure and preserving it 5 as a viable social unit, protecting the rights of parents to rear chil-6 dren who are members of their household, and protecting the health of 7 minor children.

8 The legislature finds that immature minors often lack the ability to 9 make fully-informed choices that take account of both immediate and 10 long-range consequences and that the medical, emotional and psycholog-11 ical consequences of abortion are serious and can be lasting, partic-12 ularly when the patient is immature. The legislature further finds that 13 the capacity to become pregnant and the capacity for mature judgment 14 concerning the wisdom of an abortion are not necessarily related. The 15 legislature finds that parents ordinarily possess information essential 16 to a physician's exercise of such physician's best medical judgment 17 concerning the child and, further, that parents who are aware that their 18 minor child has had an abortion may better ensure that such child 19 receives adequate medical attention after such child's abortion. The 20 legislature concludes then, that parental consultation is usually desir-21 able and in the best interest of the minor.

22 § 2. The public health law is amended by adding a new section 2509-b 23 to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 § 2509-b. Notification of abortions on unemancipated minors. 1. Defi-
2 nitions. For the purposes of this section, the following definitions
3 will apply:

4 (a) "unemancipated minor" means a person who has not attained the age
5 of eighteen years and is not an emancipated minor as defined in para-6 graph (b) of this subdivision.

7 (b) "emancipated minor" means a minor who is or has been lawfully 8 married or has by court order or otherwise been freed from the care, 9 custody and control of her parents.

10 (c) "abortion" means the use of any instrument, medicine, drug or any 11 other substance or device with intent to terminate the pregnancy of a 12 woman known to be pregnant with intent other than to increase the proba-13 bility of a live birth, to preserve the life or health of the child 14 after live birth, or to remove a dead fetus.

15 (d) "medical emergency" means that condition which, on the basis of 16 the physician's good faith clinical judgment, so complicates the medical 17 condition of the pregnant minor as to necessitate the immediate abortion 18 of her pregnancy to avert her death or for which delay will create seri-19 ous risk of substantial and irreversible impairment of a major bodily 20 function.

21 2. Notification concerning abortion. No person shall perform an 22 abortion upon an unemancipated minor unless such minor's agent has given 23 at least forty-eight hours written notice to a custodial parent with 24 whom the minor resides or to the legal guardian of the pregnant minor of 25 such person's intention to perform the abortion or unless such minor's 26 agent has received a written statement or oral communication, by another 27 physician, hereinafter called the "referring physician", certifying that 28 the referring physician has effectuated such notice. If the minor's 29 parents are divorced or legally separated, and a custodial parent with 30 whom the minor resides is not available to the person performing the 31 abortion or the referring physician in a reasonable time or manner, then 32 the notice to a non-custodial parent or to the parent who is available 33 shall be sufficient.

34 (a) The written notice shall be addressed to the parent or guardian at 35 the usual place of abode of the parent or guardian and delivered 36 personally to the parent or guardian by the physician or an agent.

37 (b) In lieu of the delivery required by paragraph (a) of this subdivi-38 sion, notice shall be made by certified mail addressed to the parent or 39 guardian at the usual place of abode of the parent or guardian with 40 return receipt requested with restricted delivery to the addressee. Time 41 of delivery shall be deemed to occur at 12:00 o'clock noon on the third 42 day after mailing.

43 3. Waiver of notice. No notice shall be required under this section 44 if:

45 (a) the attending physician certifies in the pregnant minor's medical 46 record that a medical emergency exists; or

47 (b) the person or persons who are entitled to notice certify in writ-48 ing that they have been notified; or

49 (c) the minor objects to notice being given to such minor's custodial 50 parent with whom the minor resides or legal guardian and obtains an 51 order issued by a judge of the family court as provided in article ten-A 52 of the family court act, or by any other judge or justice of this state 53 having jurisdiction, dispensing with such notice.

54 4. Coercion prohibited. No parent, guardian or other person shall 55 coerce a minor to undergo an abortion. Any minor who is threatened with 56 such coercion may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for relief.

The court shall provide the minor with counsel, give the matter expedited consideration and grant such relief as may be necessary to prevent such coercion. Should a minor be denied financial support of such minor's parents by reason of their refusal to undergo an abortion, such minor shall be considered emancipated for purposes of eligibility for assistance benefits.

5. Penalties. Any person who intentionally performs an abortion with knowledge that, or with reckless disregard as to whether, the person upon whom the abortion is to be performed is an unemancipated minor, and who intentionally or knowingly violates the requirements of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. In addition, any person who performs an abortion upon another in violation of this section shall be subject to civil liability. However, a person shall not be held liable under this section if the person establishes by written evidence that the person relied upon evidence sufficient to convince a reasonable person that the representations of the pregnant minor regarding information necessary to comply with this section are bona fide and true, or if the person has attempted with reasonable diligence to deliver notice, but has been unable to do so.

§ 3. Paragraph (viii) of subdivision (a) of section 213 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982, is amended and a new paragraph (ix) is added to read as follows:

(viii) the number, nature and disposition of cases involving child abuse under article ten of this act, including total number of new cases, their nature, whether heard by the child abuse part, the age and sex of the children involved, the type of petitioner, the number of children temporarily removed both before and after the filing of a petition, the length of time and number of adjournments between the filing of a petition and the fact-finding hearing, the number of cases that are dismissed, withdrawn, sustained and admitted to, the length of time and number of adjournments between the fact-finding hearing and the dispositional hearing, and the final disposition of such cases[-];

(ix) the number and disposition of cases under article ten-D of this act, including the total number of new cases, the age of the minor involved, whether the orders regarding notification were based upon findings either that the minors were mature minors, as defined in section one thousand ninety-nine-b of this act or that the abortions, as defined in section twenty-five hundred nine-b of the public health law, were in the best interests of the minors.

§ 4. The family court act is amended by adding a new article 10-D to read as follows:

ARTICLE 10-D
PROCEEDING TO OBTAIN AN ORDER WAIVING PARENTAL
NOTIFICATION OF AN ABORTION

- Section 1099. Purposes.
1099-a. Definitions.
1099-b. Jurisdiction.
1099-c. Procedure.

§ 1099. Purposes. This article is intended to establish procedures to implement the provisions contained in section twenty-five hundred nine-b of the public health law.

§ 1099-a. Definitions. When used in this article, the term "abortion" shall have the same meaning as is ascribed to it in paragraph (c) of subdivision one of section twenty-five hundred nine-b of the public health law and the term "mature minor" shall mean a person under the age of eighteen who has not been emancipated as defined in paragraph (b) of

1 subdivision one of section twenty-five hundred nine-b of the public
2 health law and who is able to make an informed, reasoned and considered 3 judgment in connection with a decision whether or not to proceed with 4 the abortion.

5 § 1099-b. Jurisdiction. The family court has exclusive original juris-6 isdiction over proceedings under this article to obtain an order waiving 7 parental notification of an abortion.

8 § 1099-c. Procedure. Notwithstanding any other provision of law:

9 1. The waiver of parental notification to an abortion upon or with the 10 respect to an unemancipated minor may be obtained by order of a judge of 11 the family court in the county where such person resides or if such 12 minor is not a resident of this state, in the county where the abortion 13 is to be performed, on application by such person or by a relative of 14 such person or other interested party.

15 2. Such court proceedings shall be commenced ex parte and may be 16 commenced and continued without the payment of any fees. The court shall 17 advise the minor that they have a right to court-appointed counsel and 18 shall provide such minor with such counsel upon their request.

19 3. Such application shall be given immediate consideration and a hear-20 ing shall be held immediately at which the person upon or with respect
21 to whom the abortion is to be performed shall be present. The court
22 shall issue written and specific factual findings and legal conclusions 23 supporting its decision and shall order that a confidential record of 24 the evidence be maintained. All proceedings with respect to such appli-25 cation, including an appeal therefrom, shall protect the anonymity of 26 the minor. Said proceedings shall be sealed, and no person shall be 27 allowed access to such sealed records except upon an order of a judge of 28 the court in which the application was processed or of a justice of the 29 supreme court of the judicial district, and no such order shall be 30 granted except on good cause shown.

31 4. An order shall issue only upon finding by the court (a) that such 32 person presently desires to submit to such abortion; (b) that such 33 person is either a mature minor or that such abortion is in the best 34 interest of such person; and (c) that a previous application for such 35 order has not been made and denied upon the same grounds. If the court 36 so finds, the order must issue.

37 5. In the event that the court shall deny the application for the 38 order, an expedited anonymous appeal shall be available to such appli-39 cant to the appellate division of the supreme court of the judicial 40 department in which the court which rendered the decision is located.
41 The notice of intent to appeal shall be filed within twenty-four hours 42 from the date of issuance of the order. The record on appeal shall be 43 completed and the appeal shall be perfected within five days from the 44 filing of the notice to appeal. Because time may be of the essence 45 regarding the performance of the abortion, the supreme court shall, by 46 court rule, provide for expedited appellate review of cases appealed 47 under this section.

48 6. The supreme court shall promulgate any rules and regulations neces-49 sary to ensure that proceedings under this section are handled in an 50 expeditious and anonymous manner.

51 7. The supreme court, in its discretion, may issue such other and 52 further lawful orders as it deems necessary to protect such person.

53 § 5. Separability. If any clause, sentence, section or part of this 54 act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be 55 invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the 56 remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause,

1 sentence, paragraph, section or part thereof directly involved in the 2 controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.
3 § 6. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 4 have become a law.
