AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to certain judgments by confession

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision (a) of section 3218 of the civil practice law 2 and rules, as amended by chapter 311 of the laws of 1963, paragraph 1 as 3 amended by chapter 831 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as 4 follows:

5 (a) Affidavit of defendant. Except as provided in section thirty-two 6 hundred one of this article and subdivision (e) of this section, a judg-
7 ment by confession may be entered, without an action, either for money
8 due or to become due, or to secure the plaintiff against a contingent
9 liability [~~in~~] on behalf of the defendant, or both, upon an affidavit
10 executed by the defendant~~[-]~~ +:

11 1. stating the sum for which judgment may be entered, authorizing the 12 entry of judgment, and stating the county where the defendant resides 13 [~~and, if applicable, stating that the interest rate for consumer debt~~ 14 ~~pursuant to section five thousand four of this chapter applies~~];

15 2. if the judgment to be confessed is for money due or to become due, 16 stating concisely the facts out of which the debt arose and showing that 17 the sum confessed is justly due or to become due; and

18 3. if the judgment to be confessed is for the purpose of securing the 19 plaintiff against a contingent liability, stating concisely the facts 20 constituting the liability and showing that the sum confessed does not 21 exceed the amount of the liability.

22 § 2. Section 3218 of the civil practice law and rules is amended by 23 adding a new subdivision (e) to read as follows:

24 (e) Prohibition on certain judgments by confession. No judgment by 25 confession may be entered on:
