2025-2026 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 23, 2025

Introduced by Sen. SKOUFIS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to the crime of masked harassment and aggravated harassment

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative intent. During the COVID-19 pandemic, when 2 masks became essential for public health reasons, many anti-masked 3 harassment laws across the country were suspended, modified, or in New 4 York state's case, completely repealed.

5 The original intent behind these late 19th and early 20th century laws
6 - to prevent masked individuals and groups from engaging in public
7 intimidation or violence - remains wholly relevant today. New York 8 state currently faces a new era of masked harassment and intimidation.
9 Individuals who are targeting others with violence and intimidation are 10 using masks and other face coverings as a tool to place their targets in 11 fear of physical harm. This anti-masked harassment legislation would 12 reinstate an anti-masked harassment law in New York following its 13 repeal because of public health considerations during the COVID-19
14 pandemic, and has been modified to address these health and safety 15 concerns.

16 The recent insurrection at the U.S. Capitol in 2021, is a quintessen-17 tial example of how individuals who threaten and intimidate their 18 targets have worn masks to place others in fear for their physical safe-19 ty, including during the commission of violent criminal acts. Masked 20 actors, like the KKK in the past, frequently rely on their anonymity to 21 intimidate, provoke violence, and carry out acts of terrorism.

22 Anti-masked harassment laws can serve as an effective deterrent 23 against such identity-based violence.

24 In the effort to continue to uphold free speech protections enshrined 25 in the U.S. and New York Constitutions -- while also protecting the

1 safety of all New Yorkers -- this legislation acknowledges that masks 2 are worn for many lawful purposes, including to protect one's health and 3 safety or for religious reasons, and accordingly provides appropriate 4 carveouts.

5 This measure is not only a legal necessity, but a moral imperative to 6 ensure the rights of all New Yorkers are protected to the fullest extent 7 of the law. With this legislation, New York will send a clear message:
8 masked harassment and violence will not be tolerated in our state.

9 § 2. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 240.12 to read 10 as follows:

11 § 240.12 Masked harassment.

12 1. A person is guilty of the crime of masked harassment when such 13 person wears a mask or other face covering that intentionally hides or 14 conceals their face for the primary purpose of menacing or threatening 15 violence against another person or placing another person or group of 16 persons in reasonable fear for their physical safety.

17 2. It shall not constitute an offense of masked harassment under this 18 section where a person is not wearing a mask or face covering for the 19 primary purpose of menacing or threatening violence against another 20 person or placing another person or group of persons in reasonable fear 21 for their physical safety, including:

23 day, celebration or other event involving costumes;

28 the weather elements or while participating in a winter sport;

6 gious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation, regardless of 20 (vi) wearing a medical mask, face shield, or other similar face cover-
