relation to vacating all existing unpaid surcharges, DNA databank fees, crime victim assistance fees, sexual offender registration fees, or supplemental sex offender victim fees (Part F)

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act enacts into law major components of legislation 2 relating to ending the unfair financial burdens imposed on defendants in 3 criminal, vehicle and traffic, or other types of criminal or quasi-cri-
4 minal matters by the existence of mandatory court surcharges and fees, 5 mandatory minimum fines and mandatory probation or parole fees. This 6 act further enacts into law procedures by which courts would be required 7 to engage in an individualized assessment of a person's financial abili-8 ty to pay a fine prior to imposing a fine, eliminates the availability 9 of incarceration as a remedy for a failure to pay a fine, and vacates 10 all existing warrants or unsatisfied civil judgments issued solely based 11 on a person's failure to timely pay a fine, surcharge, or fee. Each 12 component is wholly contained within a Part identified as Parts A 13 through F. The effective date for each particular provision contained 14 within such Part is set forth in the last section of such Part. Any 15 provision in any section contained within a Part, including the effec-
16 tive date of the Part, which makes reference to a section "of this act", 17 when used in connection with that particular component, shall be deemed 18 to mean and refer to the corresponding section of the Part in which it
19 is found. Section four of this act sets forth the general effective 20 date of this act.

21 § 2. Legislative intent. The legislative intent of this act is to end 22 the inequitable financial burdens placed on defendants by the previously 23 enacted statutory provisions which have authorized or mandated the impo-24 sition of surcharges, fees, and/or mandatory minimum fines, which have 25 had a disparate impact on poor defendants, people of color, and those 26 who lack access to the significant financial resources necessary in 27 order to satisfy the imposition of surcharges, fees, and fines, and 28 which have also contributed to mass incarceration in New York state. The 29 legislative intent is also to end New York's regressive reliance on 30 generating governmental revenue by imposing surcharges, fees, and fines 31 on those least able to pay.

1 not be more than fifty dollars. The court shall require an initial 2 payment of such portion of the reduced filing fee as the incarcerated 3 individual can reasonably afford or shall authorize no initial payment 4 of the fee if exceptional circumstances render the incarcerated individ-5 ual unable to pay any fee; provided however, that the difference between 6 the amount of the reduced filing fee and the amount paid by the incar-7 cerated individual in the initial partial payment shall be assessed 8 against the incarcerated individual as an outstanding obligation to be 9 collected either by the superintendent or the municipal official of the 10 facility at which the incarcerated individual is confined, as the case 11 may be [~~in the same manner that mandatory surcharges are collected as~~ 12 ~~provided for in subdivision five of section 60.35 of the penal law~~]. The 13 court shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the 27 personally interview such incarcerated individual and determine whether 28 [~~he or she~~] such individual should be paroled in accordance with the 29 guidelines adopted pursuant to subdivision four of section two hundred 30 fifty-nine-c of this article. If parole is not granted upon such review, 31 the incarcerated individual shall be informed in writing within two 32 weeks of such appearance of the factors and reasons for such denial of 33 parole. Such reasons shall be given in detail and not in conclusory

34 terms. The board shall specify a date not more than twenty-four months 35 from such determination for reconsideration, and the procedures to be 36 followed upon reconsideration shall be the same. If the incarcerated 37 individual is released, [~~he or she~~] such individual shall be given a 38 copy of the conditions of parole. Such conditions shall where appropri-39 ate, include a requirement that the parolee comply with any restitution
40 order, [~~mandatory surcharge, sex offender registration fee and DNA data-~~

49 also be notified in writing that [~~his or her~~] such individual's voting 50 rights will be restored upon release.

51 (ii) Any incarcerated individual who is scheduled for presumptive
52 release pursuant to section eight hundred six of the correction law

54 this paragraph unless such incarcerated individual's scheduled presump-55 tive release is forfeited, canceled, or rescinded subsequently as 56 provided in such law. In such event, the incarcerated individual shall

1 appear before the board for release consideration as provided in subpar-
2 agraph (i) of this paragraph as soon thereafter as is practicable.

38 conviction of any crime to pay any fee, including but not limited to an 39 administrative fee, supervision fee, monitoring fee, testing fee, or 40 screening fee, to the local probation department with the responsibility 41 of supervising the probationer. Nothing in this section shall be

47 as follows:

48 (a) A merit termination granted by the department under this section 49 shall constitute a termination of the sentence with respect to which it 50 was granted. No such merit termination shall be granted unless the 51 department is satisfied that termination of sentence from presumptive 52 release, parole, conditional release or post-release supervision is in 53 the best interest of society~~, and that the parolee or releasee, other~~ 54 ~~wise financially able to comply with an order of restitution and the~~ 55 ~~payment of any mandatory surcharge previously imposed by a court of~~

1 ~~competent jurisdiction, has made a good faith effort to comply there-~~ 2 ~~with~~].

3 § 12. Subdivisions 1 and 3 of section 259-j of the executive law, as 4 amended by section 38-g of subpart A of part C of chapter 62 of the laws
5 of 2011, are amended to read as follows:

6 1. Except where a determinate sentence was imposed for a felony other

11 the best interests of society, the board may grant such a discharge 12 prior to the expiration of the full term or maximum term to any person 13 who has been on unrevoked community supervision for at least three 14 consecutive years. A discharge granted under this section shall consti-15 tute a termination of the sentence with respect to which it was granted.
16 [~~No such discharge shall be granted unless the board is satisfied that~~

31 consecutive years. No such discharge shall be granted unless the board 32 of parole or the department acting pursuant to its responsibility under 33 subdivision one of section two hundred one of the correction law 34 consults with any licensed psychologist, qualified psychiatrist, or 35 other mental health professional who is providing care or treatment to 36 the supervisee; and the board[~~;~~ ~~(a)~~] determines that a discharge from 37 post-release supervision is in the best interests of society[~~;~~ ~~and (b)~~

40 ~~sex offender registration fee, or DNA data bank fee previously imposed~~ 41 ~~by a court of competent jurisdiction, has made a good faith effort to~~ 42 ~~comply therewith~~]. Before making a determination to discharge a person 43 from a period of post-release supervision, the board of parole may 44 request that the commissioner of the office of mental health arrange a 45 psychiatric evaluation of the supervisee. A discharge granted under this 46 section shall constitute a termination of the sentence with respect to 47 which it was granted.

36 ing:

37 (i) the defendant's income and financial resources;

44 that the court may deem relevant or necessary.

4 law, in which case the court shall waive the statutorily mandated fine; 5 or

9 court may consider the totality of the defendant's circumstances includ-
10 ing:

11 (i) the defendant's income and financial resources;

12 (ii) the defendant's debt and financial obligations;

13 (iii) whether the imposition of such fine would cause an unreasonable 14 hardship on the defendant, the defendant's immediate family, or any 15 other person who is dependent on such defendant for financial support; 16 and

17 (iv) any other information concerning the defendant's circumstances
18 that the court may deem relevant or necessary.

19 If the court determines that neither condition outlined in paragraph a 20 or b of this subdivision applies, the court shall impose a statutorily 21 mandated fine, if applicable, as directed by statute.

22 2. It shall be the duty of a court of record or administrative tribu-

24 disposition and collection of all surcharges, fees and fines imposed 25 pursuant to the penal law and this chapter. Such data shall include, at 31 to section 80.05 of the penal law or section eighteen hundred eleven of 32 this article; the amount of the surcharge, fee or fine that has been 33 paid, if any; and the race, ethnicity, age, and sex of the person for 34 whom the surcharge, fee or fine was imposed.

35 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

36 PART C

37 Section 1. Subdivisions 3 and 4 of section 420.10 of the criminal 38 procedure law are REPEALED.

39 § 2. Section 420.35 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.

40 § 3. Subdivision 5 of section 420.10 of the criminal procedure law, as 41 separately amended by chapters 233 and 506 of the laws of 1985, the 42 second undesignated paragraph as amended by chapter 618 of the laws of 43 1992, the closing paragraph as amended by chapter 322 of the laws of 44 2021, is amended to read as follows:

45 5. Application for resentence. In any case where the defendant is 46 unable to pay a fine, restitution or reparation imposed by the court, 47 [he] the defendant may at any time apply to the court for resentence. In 48 such case, if the court is satisfied that the defendant is unable to pay 49 the fine, restitution or reparation it must:

50 (a) Adjust the terms of payment; or

51 (b) Lower the amount of the fine, restitution or reparation to an 52 amount the defendant is able to pay, or revoke it entirely from the 53 sentence if the defendant has no ability to pay; or

(c) ~~[Where the sentence consists of probation or imprisonment and a fine, restitution or reparation, revoke the portion of the sentence imposing the fine, restitution or reparation, or~~

~~(d)]~~ Revoke the entire sentence imposed and resentence the defendant. Upon such resentencing the court may impose any sentence it originally could have imposed, except that the amount of any fine, restitution or reparation imposed may not be in excess of the amount the defendant is able to pay and that the court may not sentence the defendant to any term of imprisonment, probation, or post-release supervision in excess of any such term imposed by the original sentence.

In any case where the defendant applies for resentencing with respect to any condition of the sentence relating to restitution or reparation the court must order that notice of such application and a reasonable opportunity to be heard be given to the person or persons given notice pursuant to subdivision one of this section. If the court grants the defendant's application by changing the original order for restitution or reparation in any manner, the court must place the reasons therefor on the record.

~~[For the purposes of this subdivision, the court shall not determine that the defendant is unable to pay the fine, restitution or reparation ordered solely because of such defendant's incarceration but shall consider all the defendant's sources of income including, but not limited to, moneys in the possession of an incarcerated individual at the time of his or her admission into such facility, funds earned by him or her in a work release program as defined in subdivision four of section one hundred fifty of the correction law, funds earned by him or her as provided for in section one hundred eighty seven of the correction law and any other funds received by him or her or on his or her behalf and deposited with the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined.]~~

In determining whether an incarcerated defendant is able to pay a fine, restitution, or reparation, the court shall not consider income earned pursuant to subdivision four of section one hundred fifty of the correction law, income earned pursuant to section one hundred eighty-seven of the correction law, or funds received by the defendant or on the defendant's behalf and deposited with the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the person is confined.

§ 4. Subdivision 1 of section 420.30 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 3 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

1. Applicability. The procedure specified in this section governs remission of fines, restitution or reparation ~~[in all cases not covered by subdivision four of section 420.10].~~
