Introduced by Sen. S. RYAN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Social Services

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to caseload standards for preventative services caseworkers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 20-a of the social services law, as added by chap-
2 ter 107 of the laws of 1971, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 20-a. Local personnel; limitations on department's power. Notwith-
4 standing any inconsistent provision of this chapter, the board, the 5 commissioner or the department, acting singly or in unison, shall not 6 have the power, directly or indirectly to prescribe the number of 7 persons to be employed in any social services district providing the 8 district complies with the minimum federal standards relating thereto.
9 Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply 10 to the regulations of the office of children and family services estab-
11 lishing caseload standards for preventative case planning services
12 promulgated pursuant to subdivision nine of section four hundred twen-13 ty-one of this chapter.

14 § 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 153-k of the social 15 services law, as added by section 15 of part C of chapter 83 of the laws
16 of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

17 (a) Expenditures made by social services districts for child protec-
18 tive services, preventive services provided, as applicable, to eligible 19 children and families of children who are in and out of foster care
20 placement, independent living services, aftercare services, and adoption 21 administration and services other than adoption subsidies provided 22 pursuant to article six of this chapter and the regulations of the 23 department of family assistance shall, if approved by the office of 24 children and family services, be subject to sixty-five percent state 25 reimbursement exclusive of any federal funds made available for such

1 purposes, in accordance with the directives of the department of family
2 assistance and subject to the approval of the director of the budget.
3 Provided however, for requirements prescribed in subdivision nine of 4 section four hundred twenty-one of this chapter, such expenditures shall 5 be subject to one hundred percent state reimbursement, provided that 6 local social services districts continue to maintain expenditures 7 related to preventative case planning services at a level equal to or 8 greater than expenditures for such activity during the fiscal year imme-9 diately prior to the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two 10 thousand twenty-five which amended this paragraph.

11 § 3. Section 421 of the social services law is amended by adding a new 12 subdivision 9 to read as follows:

13 9. promulgate regulations in consultation with local social services
14 districts, relating to caseload standards for preventative case planning 15 services. Such standards shall be no more than twelve families per full-
16 time preventative case planning services caseworker per month. Nothing 17 in this subdivision shall be construed to prohibit the office from 18 prescribing local social services districts from establishing caseload 19 guidelines that are less than what is required in this subdivision.

20 § 4. This act shall take effect two years after it shall have become a 21 law; provided, however that the amendments to section 153-k of the 22 social services law made by section two of this act shall not affect the 23 repeal of such section and shall be deemed repealed therewith.
