19 chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

20 § 805. Earned eligibility program. Persons committed to the custody of 21 the department under an indeterminate or determinate sentence of impris-

23 ticable. No earlier than two months prior to the incarcerated individ-
24 ual's eligibility to be paroled pursuant to subdivision one of section 25 70.40 of the penal law, the commissioner shall review the incarcerated 26 individual's institutional record to determine whether [~~he or she~~] such 27 incarcerated individual has complied with the assigned program. Credit 28 for such assigned program shall not be withheld if a person fails to 29 complete a program because of circumstances beyond such person's 30 control. If the commissioner determines that the incarcerated individual 31 has successfully participated in the program [~~he or she~~] such commis-
32 sioner may issue the incarcerated individual a certificate of earned
33 eligibility. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an incarcerated 34 individual who is serving a sentence with a minimum term of not more 35 than eight years and who has been issued a certificate of earned eligi-36 bility, shall be granted parole release at the expiration of [~~his or~~ 37 ~~her~~] such incarcerated individual's minimum term or as authorized by 38 subdivision four of section eight hundred sixty-seven of this chapter
39 unless the board of parole determines that there is a reasonable proba-
40 bility that, if such incarcerated individual is released, [~~he or she~~]
41 such incarcerated individual will not live and remain at liberty without 42 violating the law and that [~~his or her~~] the release of such incarcerated
43 individual is not compatible with the welfare of society. Any action by 44 the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be deemed a judicial 45 function and shall not be reviewable if done in accordance with law.

46 § 7. Section 805 of the correction law, as amended by section 226-a of 47 chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

48 § 805. Earned eligibility program. Persons committed to the custody of 49 the department under an indeterminate sentence of imprisonment shall be 50 assigned a work and treatment program as soon as practicable. No earlier 51 than two months prior to the expiration of an incarcerated individual's 52 minimum period of imprisonment, the commissioner shall review the incar-53 cerated individual's institutional record to determine whether [~~he or~~ 54 ~~she~~] such incarcerated individual has complied with the assigned 55 program. Credit for such assigned program shall not be withheld if a 56 person fails to complete a program because of circumstances beyond such

1 person's control. If the commissioner determines that the incarcerated 2 individual has successfully participated in the program [~~he or she~~] such 3 commissioner may issue the incarcerated individual a certificate of 4 earned eligibility. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an 5 incarcerated individual who is serving a sentence with a minimum term of 6 not more than six years and who has been issued a certificate of earned 7 eligibility, shall be granted parole release at the expiration of [~~his~~ 8 ~~or her~~] such incarcerated individual's minimum term or as authorized by 9 subdivision four of section eight hundred sixty-seven of this chapter
10 unless the board of parole determines that there is a reasonable proba-
11 bility that, if such incarcerated individual is released, [~~he or she~~]
12 such incarcerated individual will not live and remain at liberty without
13 violating the law and that [~~his or her~~] the release of such incarcerated
14 individual is not compatible with the welfare of society. Any action by 15 the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be deemed a judicial 16 function and shall not be reviewable if done in accordance with law.

17 § 8. Subdivision 5 of section 806 of the correction law, as amended by 18 chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

19 5. No person shall have the right to demand or require presumptive
20 release authorized by this section. The commissioner may revoke at any 21 time an incarcerated individual's scheduled presumptive release pursuant 22 to this section for any disciplinary infraction committed by the incar-
23 cerated individual or for any failure to continue to participate 24 successfully in any assigned work and treatment program after the 25 certificate of earned eligibility has been awarded except that any such 26 failure to continue to participate in an assigned work or treatment 27 program shall not be grounds for revocation of presumptive release if 28 such failure is due to circumstances beyond the incarcerated person's 29 control. The commissioner may deny presumptive release to any incar-
30 ated individual whenever the commissioner determines that such release 31 may not be consistent with the safety of the community or the welfare of 32 the incarcerated individual. Any action by the commissioner pursuant to 33 this section shall be deemed a judicial function and shall not be 34 reviewable if done in accordance with law.

35 § 9. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that the amend-36 ments to paragraph (a) and subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (d) of subdi-37 vision 1 of section 803 of the correction law made by sections one and 38 three of this act shall be subject to the expiration and reversion of 39 such section pursuant to subdivision d of section 74 of chapter 3 of the 40 laws of 1995, as amended, when upon such date the provisions of sections 41 two and four of this act shall take effect; provided, further, that the 42 amendments to section 805 of the correction law made by section six of 43 this act shall be subject to the expiration and reversion of such

45 of 1995, as amended, when upon such date the provisions of section seven 46 of this act shall take effect; and provided, further, that the amend-47 ments to subdivision 5 of section 806 of the correction law made by 48 section eight of this act shall not affect the repeal of such section 49 and shall be deemed repealed therewith.
