AN ACT to amend the penal law and the civil rights law, in relation to establishing the offense of false pretense

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as
2 the "Barakett digital safety act".

3 § 2. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 190.22 to read
4 as follows:

5 § 190.22 False pretense.

6 1. A person is guilty of false pretense, when such person knowingly
7 and without consent impersonates another person through or on an inter-
8 net website, digital platform, or by using artificial intelligence tech-9 nologies, including deepfakes or synthetic media, or by other electronic 10 means for the purposes of harming, intimidating, threatening or defraud-
11 ing such other person.

12 2. For the purposes of this section:

13 (a) An impersonation is credible if another person would reasonably 14 believe or did reasonably believe that the defendant was or is the 15 person who was impersonated.

16 (b) "Electronic means" shall include the accessing of an e-mail
17 account, or an account or profile on a social networking internet
18 website in another person's name.

19 (c) "Impersonates" includes the use of artificial intelligence
20 systems, generative models, deepfake technology, synthetic audio or 21 video, or any automated digital system that simulates or reproduces

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

1 another person's likeness, voice, image, or identity without their
2 consent.

3 False pretense is a class A misdemeanor; provided, however, where: (a)
4 the impersonation results in financial loss exceeding one thousand
5 dollars;(b) the impersonation includes a credible threat of physical
6 harm; or (c) the impersonation is committed through artificial intelli-
7 gence technology, deepfakes, or synthetic media for the purpose of 8 fraud, extortion, or substantial reputational, professional, or economic 9 harm, false pretense is a class D felony.

10 § 3. The civil rights law is amended by adding a new section 79-r to 11 read as follows:

12 § 79-r. Civil remedies for false pretense. Any person aggrieved by a 13 violation of section 190.22 of the penal law may commence a civil action
14 in a court of competent jurisdiction. In any action brought pursuant to 15 this section, the court may:

- 16 1. award actual damages, compensatory damages, or statutory damages;
- 17 2. order restitution to be paid to the victim;
- 18 3. impose a civil penalty not to exceed fifty thousand dollars where 19 the violation involves artificial intelligence, deepfake technology, 20 synthetic media, or other digital impersonation technologies used to 21 cause harm, intimidation, threats, or fraud;
- 22 4. order the removal, deletion, de-indexing, or cessation of distrib-
23 ution of impersonation content from digital platforms or online sources
24 to the extent practicable;
- 25 5. issue temporary, preliminary, or permanent injunctive relief to 26 prevent further distribution of impersonation content; and
- 27 6. upon a second or subsequent adjudicated violation, restrict or 28 prohibit the defendant from using digital impersonation technologies or 29 software capable of synthetic identity replication for a period not to 30 exceed three years, subject to terms deemed appropriate by the court.

31 § 4. This act shall take effect on the first of November next succeed-
32 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
