2 the "trapped at work act".

1 who provides a service or services to an employer or to a client or 2 customer of an employer on behalf of such employer, and an individual 3 who provides service through a business or nonprofit entity or associ-
4 ation. "Worker" does not include an individual, even if the individual 5 performs incidental service for the employer, whose sole relationship 6 with the employer is as a vendor of goods.

7 3. "Employment promissory note" means any instrument, agreement, or 8 contract provision that requires a worker to pay the employer, or the 9 employer's agent or assignee, a sum of money if the worker leaves such 10 employment before the passage of a stated period of time. "Employment 11 promissory note" includes any such instrument, agreement, or contract
12 provision which states such payment of moneys constitutes reimbursement 13 for training provided to the worker by the employer or by a third party.

14 § 1051. Scope. The rights and remedies provided pursuant to this arti-
15 cle shall not supersede any other rights and remedies provided by stat-16 ute or common law.

17 § 1052. Prohibiting the use of employment promissory notes and other 18 similar provisions. 1. Beginning on the effective date of this article, 19 no employer may require, as a condition of employment, any worker or 20 prospective worker to execute an employment promissory note. The 21 execution of an employment promissory note as a condition of employment 22 is unconscionable, against public policy, and unenforceable, and any 23 such note shall be null and void. If any such note is part of a larger 24 agreement, the invalidity of such note shall not affect the other 25 provisions of such agreement.

26 2. Nothing in this section shall prohibit or render void or unenforce-27 able any agreement between a worker and an employer that:

28 (a) requires the worker to repay to the employer any sums advanced to 29 such worker by the employer, unless such sums were used to pay for 30 training related to the worker's employment with the employer;

31 (b) requires the worker to pay the employer for any property it has 32 sold or leased to such worker;

33 (c) requires educational personnel to comply with any terms or condi-
34 tions of sabbatical leaves granted by their employers; or

35 (d) is entered into as part of a program agreed to by the employer and 36 its workers' collective bargaining representative.

37 § 1053. Enforcement. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an 38 employee who is sued by an employer seeking to enforce the provisions of 39 a promissory note made null and void by this article shall be able to 40 recover attorney's fees upon a successful defense.

41 2. Any employer found to have violated this article shall be fined by 42 the commissioner not less than one thousand dollars and not more than 43 five thousand dollars for each violation. Each worker or prospective 44 worker whom an employer required to execute an employment promissory 45 note or against whom an employer seeks to enforce such a note shall 46 constitute a separate violation of this article.

47 § 1054. Rules. The commissioner may promulgate rules and regulations 48 necessary to carry out the provisions of this article.

49 § 1055. Savings clause. If any portion of this article or the applica-
50 tion thereof to any person, occupation or circumstance is held invalid, 51 the remainder of the article and the application of such provision to 52 other persons, employees, occupations, or circumstances shall not be 53 affected thereby.

54 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
