AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to authorizing a personal income tax deduction for student loan payments

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subsection (c) of section 612 of the tax law is amended by 2 adding a new paragraph 48 to read as follows:

3 (48) Payment not in excess of five thousand dollars actually paid by 4 an eligible borrower for student loan repayment, to the extent not 5 deductible in determining federal adjusted gross income and not reim-6 bursed. For the purposes of this paragraph, the following terms have 7 the following meanings:

8 (i) "Student loans" means any indebtedness incurred by the taxpayer 9 solely for any qualified education loan to the extent provided in 10 section 221 of the Internal Revenue Code.

11 (ii) "Eligible borrower" shall mean a taxpayer who has incurred
12 indebtedness on student loans as defined in subparagraph (i) of this 13 paragraph on behalf of the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, or any 14 dependent of the taxpayer as of the time the indebtedness was incurred.

15 (iii) Any payment made by an employer, employee, or on behalf of an 16 employee pursuant to this section that is directly deducted from the 17 employee's wages through payroll and administered by a third-party plat-18 form that facilitates direct payments to educational institutions or 19 related loan servicers on behalf of students shall be excluded from the 20 employee's New York state gross income, provided that such payments do 21 not exceed five thousand dollars in any taxable year.

22 (iv) Any contribution to a tuition program under section 529 of the 23 Internal Revenue Code made through payroll deduction and facilitated by
