A warrant issued pursuant to this section shall also constitute sufficient authority to the person in charge of a drug treatment campus, as defined in subdivision twenty of section two of the correction law, to hold the person named therein, in accordance with the procedural requirements of this section, for a period of at least ninety days to complete an intensive drug treatment program mandated by the board as an alternative to presumptive release or parole or conditional release revocation, or the revocation of post-release supervision, and shall also constitute sufficient authority for return of the person named therein to local custody to hold in temporary detention for further revocation proceedings in the event said person does not successfully complete the intensive drug treatment program. The board's rules shall provide for cancellation of delinquency and restoration to supervision upon the successful completion of the program.

54 ~~(C)]~~ Revocation hearings shall be scheduled to be held within ninety 55 days of the probable cause determination. However, if an alleged viola-56 tor requests and receives any postponement of [~~his or her~~] such alleged

1 violator's revocation hearing, or consents to a postponed revocation
2 proceeding initiated by the board, or if an alleged violator, by [~~his~~]
3 such alleged violator's actions otherwise precludes the prompt conduct 4 of such proceedings, the time limit may be extended.

5 (ii) The revocation hearing shall be conducted by a presiding officer

29 ~~or local correctional facility shall be credited toward any period of~~ 30 ~~reincarceration imposed pursuant to this paragraph. In all cases, the~~ 31 ~~presiding officer shall impose the least restrictive reasonable sanc-~~
32 ~~tion. Any periods of reincarceration imposed pursuant to this section~~
33 ~~shall run concurrently if more than one violation is sustained. If a~~ 34 ~~period of reincarceration is imposed pursuant to this paragraph, the~~ 35 ~~releasee shall be released from custody upon expiration of the period or~~ 36 ~~the end of the releasee's period of community supervision, whichever~~ 37 ~~shall be sooner]. For the violator serving an indeterminate sentence who~~ 38 while re-incarcerated has not been found by the department to have 39 committed a serious disciplinary infraction, such violator shall be 40 re-released on the date fixed at the revocation hearing. For the viola-41 tor serving an indeterminate sentence who has been found by the depart-
42 ment to have committed a serious disciplinary infraction while re-incar-43 cerated, the department shall refer the violator to the board for 44 consideration for re-release to community supervision. Upon such refer-45 ral the board may waive the personal interview between a member or 46 members of the board and the violator to determine the suitability for 47 re-release when the board directs that the violator be re-released upon 48 expiration of the time assessment. The board shall retain the authority 49 to suspend the date fixed for re-release based on the violator's commis-
50 sion of a serious disciplinary infraction and shall in such case require 51 a personal interview be conducted within a reasonable time between a 52 panel of members of the board and the violator to determine suitability 53 for re-release. If an interview is required, the board shall notify the 54 violator in advance of the date and time of such interview in accordance 55 with the rules and regulations of the board.

1 [~~(xiv)~~] (xi) If the presiding officer sustains any violations, such 2 officer must prepare a written statement, to be made available to the 3 alleged violator and [~~his or her~~] such alleged violator's counsel, indi-
4 cating the evidence relied upon and the reasons for revoking presumptive 5 release, parole, conditional release or post-release supervision, and 6 for the disposition made. The presiding officer shall also advise the 7 alleged violator in a written statement that revocation will result in 8 loss of the right to vote while [~~he or she~~] such alleged violator is 9 serving the remainder of [~~his or her~~] such alleged violator's felony 10 sentence in a correctional facility and that the right to vote will be 11 restored upon [~~his or her~~] such alleged violator's release.

12 [~~(xv)~~] (xii) If at any time during a revocation proceeding the alleged 13 violator, [~~his or her~~] such alleged violator's counsel, or an employee 14 of the department contends, or if it reasonably appears to the hearing 15 officer, that the alleged violator is an incapacitated person as that 16 term is defined in subdivision one of section 730.10 of the criminal 17 procedure law and no judicial determination has been made that the 18 alleged violator is an incapacitated person, the revocation proceeding 19 shall be temporarily stayed until the superior court determines whether 20 or not the person is fit to proceed. The matter shall be promptly
21 referred to the superior court for determination of the alleged viola-22 tor's fitness to proceed in a manner consistent with the provisions of 23 article seven hundred thirty of the criminal procedure law, provided 24 however that the superior court shall immediately appoint counsel for 25 any unrepresented alleged violator eligible for appointed counsel under 26 subparagraph (v) of this paragraph. The court shall decide whether or 27 not the alleged violator is incapacitated within thirty days of the 28 referral from the hearing officer. If the court determines that the 29 alleged violator is not an incapacitated person, the court shall order 30 that the matter be returned to the board of parole for continuation and 31 disposition of the revocation proceeding. If the court determines that 32 the alleged violator is an incapacitated person and if no felony charges 33 are pending against the alleged violator, the court shall issue a final 34 order of observation committing such person to the custody of the 35 commissioner of mental health or the commissioner of developmental disa-
36 bilities for care and treatment in an appropriate institution in a 37 manner consistent with subdivision one of section 730.40 of the criminal 38 procedure law. If a final order of observation has been issued pursuant 39 to this section, the hearing officer shall dismiss the violation charges 40 and such dismissal shall act as a bar to any further proceeding under 41 this section against the alleged violator for such violations. If felony 42 criminal charges are pending at any time against an alleged violator who 43 has been referred to superior court for a fitness evaluation but before 44 a determination of fitness has been made pursuant to this section, the 45 court shall decide whether or not the alleged violator is incapacitated
46 pursuant to article seven hundred thirty of the criminal procedure law
47 and the revocation proceeding shall be held in abeyance until such deci-
48 sion has been reached. The hearing officer shall adopt the capacity 49 finding of the court and either terminate the revocation process if an 50 order of observation has been made by the court or proceed with the 51 revocation hearing if the alleged violator has been found not to be an 52 incapacitated person.
