AN ACT creating a temporary New York state commission on sex offender supervision and management and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings and intent. The legislature hereby 2 finds and declares that persons convicted of a sex offense present a 3 danger to the public. It is necessary that these offenders receive 4 appropriate supervision and treatment designed to reduce the risk of 5 re-offense in order to ensure the safety, health and welfare of the 6 communities in which convicted sex offenders reside. The legislature
7 further finds that New York's state prison system does not adequately 8 prepare incarcerated individuals for a safe return to the community upon 9 the completion of their sentence. Lack of treatment during incarceration 10 creates a threat to public safety by increasing the likelihood that 11 incarcerated individuals released to the community will be unable to 12 successfully transition back to society and therefore heightens the risk
13 of re-offense. This is especially true for sex offenders who often do 14 not find appropriate housing and treatment programs in the community.
15 Further, the division of parole, local probation departments and social 16 services agencies are often unable to locate suitable housing for 17 convicted sex offenders. This lack of housing has resulted in an unac-18 ceptable level of concentration of sex offenders in certain residential 19 areas.

20 § 2. A temporary state commission, to be known as the New York state 21 commission on sex offender supervision and management, hereinafter 22 referred to as the commission, is hereby created to examine, evaluate, 23 and make recommendations concerning the effectiveness of programs
24 involving incarcerated individuals who are required to register as a sex

2 state and local correctional facilities. The commission shall investi-3 gate all factors that impact the risk of recidivism, and lead to the 4 concentration of sex offenders in certain residential areas. The commis-5 sion shall analyze the impact of existing policies and practices and 6 compare such policies and practices of this state to those of other 7 states and the federal government. The commission shall collect data 8 from state and federal agencies and may analyze any current research 9 deemed relevant and appropriate. Specifically, the commission shall 10 examine at least the following:

12 certain residential areas and municipalities and the circumstances that 13 caused such concentrations to exist;

14 (b) the practices and procedures of the division of parole, local 15 probation departments and local social services districts in investigat-
16 ing and approving residences for convicted sex offenders;

17 (c) the availability of appropriate housing for convicted sex offen-18 ders;

19 (d) the adequacy of supervision and monitoring of registered sex
20 offenders under the supervision of the division of parole or serving a

6 recommendations for legislative action as it may deem necessary and 7 appropriate, to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, and 8 the speaker of the assembly no later than one year after the effective 9 date of this act.

10 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be 11 deemed repealed 1 year after such effective date; provided that the
