55 public offering, and federal law or regulations restricts the disclosure 56 of information relating to such work, the reporting individual shall (i)

1 disclose the identity of the client and the services provided relating 2 to the initial public offering to the office of court administration, 3 who will maintain such information confidentially in a locked box; and 4 (ii) include in [~~his or her~~] their response a statement that pursuant to 5 this paragraph, a disclosure to the office of court administration has 6 been made. Upon such time that the disclosure of information maintained 7 in the locked box is no longer restricted by federal law or regulation, 8 the reporting individual shall disclose such information in an amended 9 disclosure statement in response to the disclosure requirements of this 10 paragraph. The office of court administration shall develop and main-

30 In reviewing the request for an exemption, the commission on ethics 31 and lobbying in government or the office of court administration may 32 consult with bar or other professional associations and the legislative 33 ethics commission for individuals subject to its jurisdiction and may 34 consider the rules of professional conduct. In making its determination, 35 the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or the office of 36 court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall consider 37 factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the size of 38 the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the state;

49 determination in response to such request, which shall include an expla-
50 nation for its determination. The office of court administration shall 51 issue its final determination within three days of receiving the 52 request. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any professional 53 disciplinary rule to the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any
