Introduced by Sen. COMRIE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to deterring theft of essential infrastructure

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as
2 the "prevention of damage to essential infrastructure act".

3 § 2. The penal law is amended by adding two new sections 155.26 and 4 155.27 to read as follows:

5 § 155.26 Grand larceny of essential services in the second degree.

6 1. A person is guilty of grand larceny of essential services in the 7 second degree when such person steals the property of an essential
8 service provider as defined in subdivision two of this section.

9 2. For purposes of this section, an "essential service provider" shall 10 mean a utility company as defined in subdivision twenty-three of section 11 two of the public service law, a cable television company as defined in 12 subdivision one of section two hundred twelve of such law, an internet 13 service provider as defined in paragraph (g) of subdivision one of 14 section two hundred twenty-four-c of such law, a cellular telephone
15 company, any other person or entity providing voice or data communi-
16 cations services to the public, regardless of its regulatory status
17 under state or federal law, or a public utility authority subject to the 18 provisions of article five of the public authorities law.

19 Grand larceny of essential services in the second degree is a class C 20 felony.

21 § 155.27 Grand larceny of essential services in the first degree.

22 A person is guilty of grand larceny of essential services in the first
23 degree when such person steals property of an essential service provid-
24 er, as defined in subdivision two of section 155.26 of this article, and

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
