IN SENATE

February 25, 2025

Introduced by Sen. SANDERS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Elections

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to authorizing electronic absentee ballot applications

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of section 8-400 of the 2 election law, as amended by chapter 481 of the laws of 2023, is amended 3 to read as follows:

4 (c) All applications requesting an absentee ballot by mail or through 5 the electronic absentee ballot application transmittal system must be 6 received by the board of elections not later than the tenth day before 7 the election for which a ballot is first requested. Applications for an 8 absentee ballot that will be delivered in person at the board of 9 elections to the voter or to an agent of the voter must be received by 10 such board not later than the day before such election. In addition to 11 postal or personal delivery of the application to the board of 12 elections, the board of elections shall accept delivery of absentee 13 ballot applications: (i) by telephone facsimile transmission to a phone 14 number which shall be designated by the board of elections; (ii) as an 15 attachment to an electronic mail transmission sent to an electronic mail
16 address which shall be designated by the board of elections; and (iii)
17 through an online electronic absentee ballot application filing system 18 which shall be established by the state board of elections and which 19 shall transmit each application to the appropriate board of elections
20 for processing. The website for each board of elections shall advertise 21 the email address and telephone facsimile number required by this 22 section and shall provide a link to the online electronic filing system 23 established pursuant to this section. An application delivered to the 24 board of elections by electronic means shall be an original application 25 without necessity for a subsequent conforming paper submission and shall

1 be deemed filed when received by the board of elections, except if 2 received by electronic means after business hours or extended hours as 3 designated by this chapter, such application shall be deemed received as 4 of the next day on which the board is open to receive absentee ballot
5 applications. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the 6 application of the electronic signature provisions of the state technol-
7 ogy law with respect to applications for an absentee ballot.

8 § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 10-107 of the election law, as added by 9 chapter 104 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

10 2. Irrespective of the preferred method of transmission designated by 11 a military voter, a military voter's original completed voter registra-12 tion application[~~, military ballot application~~] and military ballot must 13 be returned by mail or in person notwithstanding that a prior copy was 14 sent to the board of elections by facsimile transmission or electronic 15 mail. A completed military ballot application submitted by facsimile 16 transmission or electronic mail or through an electronic filing system
17 established by the state board of elections shall be an original appli-18 cation and no conforming paper submission shall be required.

19 § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 11-203 of the election law, as added by 20 chapter 104 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

21 2. Irrespective of the preferred method of transmission designated by 22 a special federal voter, a special federal voter's original completed 23 voter registration application[~~, special federal ballot application~~] and 24 special federal ballot must be returned by mail or in person notwith-
25 standing that a prior copy was sent to the board of elections by facsim-
26 ile transmission or electronic mail. A completed special federal ballot 27 application submitted by facsimile transmission or electronic mail or 28 through an electronic filing system established by the state board of 29 elections shall be an original application and no conforming paper 30 submission shall be required.

31 § 4. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-
32 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
