2025-2026 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

March 3, 2025

Introduced by Sen. SEPULVEDA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Crime Victims, Crime and Correction

AN ACT to repeal section 257-c of the executive law, relating to probation administrative fees; to amend the executive law, in relation to prohibiting certain fees associated with probation; and to amend the correction law and the executive law, in relation to termination and discharge of certain sentences

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 257-c of the executive law is REPEALED.

2 § 2. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 257-c to 3 read as follows:

4 § 257-c. Prohibition on fees associated with probation. Notwithstand-
5 ing any other provision of law, no county or city may adopt a local law 6 requiring individuals currently serving or who shall be sentenced to a 7 period of probation upon conviction of any crime to pay any fee, includ-
8 ing but not limited to an administrative fee, supervision fee, monitor-9 ing fee, testing fee, or screening fee, to the local probation depart-10 ment with the responsibility of supervising the probationer. Nothing in 11 this section shall be construed to affect the collection of restitution 12 payments and associated surcharges pursuant to sections 65.10 and 60.27 13 of the penal law and subdivision 8 of section 420.10 of the criminal 14 procedure law.

15 § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 205 of the correction law, as amended by 16 chapter 491 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

17 2. (a) A merit termination granted by the department under this 18 section shall constitute a termination of the sentence with respect to 19 which it was granted. No such merit termination shall be granted unless 20 the department is satisfied that termination of sentence from presump-21 tive release, parole, conditional release or post-release supervision is

6 (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person granted merit 7 termination pursuant to this section shall be provided a certificate of 8 relief from disabilities pursuant to section seven hundred three of this 9 chapter or a certificate of good conduct under section seven hundred 10 three-b of this chapter, as applicable.

11 § 4. Subdivisions 1 and 3 of section 259-j of the executive law, as 12 amended by section 38-g of subpart A of part C of chapter 62 of the laws 13 of 2011, are amended to read as follows:

14 1. Except where a determinate sentence was imposed for a felony other 15 than a felony defined in article two hundred twenty or article two 16 hundred twenty-one of the penal law, if the board of parole is satisfied 17 that an absolute discharge from presumptive release, parole, conditional 18 release or release to a period of post-release supervision is in the 19 best interests of society, the board may grant such a discharge prior to 20 the expiration of the full term or maximum term to any person who has 21 been on unrevoked community supervision for at least three consecutive 22 years. A discharge granted under this section shall constitute a termi-23 nation of the sentence with respect to which it was granted. [~~No such~~ 24 ~~discharge shall be granted unless the board is satisfied that the paro-~~

26 ~~restitution and the payment of any mandatory surcharge, sex offender~~ 27 ~~registration fee or DNA databank fee previously imposed by a court of~~ 28 ~~competent jurisdiction, has made a good faith effort to comply there-~~ 29 ~~with.]~~

30 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contra-31 ry, where a term of post-release supervision in excess of five years has 32 been imposed on a person convicted of a crime defined in article one 33 hundred thirty of the penal law, including a sexually motivated felony, 34 the board of parole may grant a discharge from post-release supervision 35 prior to the expiration of the maximum term of post-release supervision.
36 Such a discharge may be granted only after the person has served at 37 least five years of post-release supervision, and only to a person who 38 has been on unrevoked post-release supervision for at least three 39 consecutive years. No such discharge shall be granted unless the board 40 of parole or the department acting pursuant to its responsibility under 41 subdivision one of section two hundred one of the correction law 42 consults with any licensed psychologist, qualified psychiatrist, or 43 other mental health professional who is providing care or treatment to 44 the supervisee; and the board[~~+(a)~~] determines that a discharge from 45 post-release supervision is in the best interests of society[~~, and (b)~~ 46 ~~is satisfied that the supervisee, otherwise financially able to comply~~ 47 ~~with an order of restitution and the payment of any mandatory surcharge,~~
48 ~~sex offender registration fee, or DNA data bank fee previously imposed~~ 49 ~~by a court of competent jurisdiction, has made a good faith effort to~~ 50 ~~comply therewith]. Before making a determination to discharge a person 51 from a period of post-release supervision, the board of parole may 52 request that the commissioner of the office of mental health arrange a 53 psychiatric evaluation of the supervisee. A discharge granted under this 54 section shall constitute a termination of the sentence with respect to 55 which it was granted.~~

56 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
