Introduced by Sen. LANZA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Local Government

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to eligibility for the disabled homeowners' exemption for a surviving spouse of a deceased person with a disability

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 459-c of the real 2 property tax law, as amended by chapter 209 of the laws of 2024, is 3 amended to read as follows:

4 (a) (i) Real property owned by one or more persons with disabilities, 5 or real property owned by a married person or a married couple, or by 6 siblings, at least one of whom has a disability, or a person with a 7 disability who has their primary residence in a special needs trust, or 8 a property owner who has a tenant with a disability whose lease provides 9 them with a life interest in the property as long as the tenant remains 10 in residence, or real property owned by one or more persons, some of 11 whom qualify under this section and the others of whom qualify under 12 section four hundred sixty-seven of this title, and whose income, as 13 hereafter defined, is limited by reason of such disability, shall be 14 exempt from payments in lieu of taxes (PILOT) to the battery city park 15 authority or from taxation by any municipal corporation in which located 16 to the extent of fifty per centum of the assessed valuation thereof as 17 hereinafter provided. After a public hearing, the governing board of a 18 county, city, town or village may adopt a local law and a school 19 district, other than a school district subject to article fifty-two of 20 the education law, may adopt a resolution to grant the exemption author-21 ized pursuant to this section.

22 (ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section or any other 23 provision of law, rule or regulation, if a person is eligible for the 24 exemption set forth in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph and predeceas-
