AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to prohibiting employers from discriminating against individuals based on such individual's status as a caregiver

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 21-e of section 292 of the executive law, as

3 follows:

4 21-e. The term "reasonable accommodation" means actions taken which 5 permit an employee, prospective employee or member with a disability, or 6 a pregnancy-related condition, or who is a caregiver, to perform in a 7 reasonable manner the activities involved in the job or occupation 8 sought or held and include, but are not limited to, provision of an 9 accessible worksite, acquisition or modification of equipment, support 10 services for persons with impaired hearing or vision, modifications to 11 existing facilities to make them more accessible, modification or relo-12 cation of a workstation, modifications to workplace policies regarding 17 ules, alternative working arrangements such as part-year employment or 18 job sharing, flexible scheduling or variable hours, alternative work 19 locations or reassignment to another location, remote work or telework, 20 consistent or predictable scheduling, time off work such as to attend 21 meetings or appointments, temporary or permanent transfer to another 22 position, or leave of absence; provided, however, that such actions do

1 not impose an undue hardship on the business, program or enterprise of 2 the entity from which action is requested.

3 § 2. Section 292 of the executive law is amended by adding four new 4 subdivisions 42, 43, 44 and 45 to read as follows:

5 42. The term "caregiver" means a person who provides the daily care or 6 supervision of a minor child or a care recipient, or any person who 7 contributes to and is involved in the caretaking responsibilities of 8 such minor child or care recipient. Such minor child or care recipient 9 may, but need not, reside in the household of the caregiver. The defi-10 inition of "caregiver" shall not include persons performing caretaking 11 services in the capacity of employment as a domestic worker as defined 12 by subdivision sixteen of section two of the labor law.

13 43. The term "minor child" means a child under the age of eighteen.

14 44. The term "care recipient" means a covered family member who has a 15 disability, including a temporary disability, or is aged sixty-five or 16 older, and who relies on the caregiver for medical care or to meet the 17 needs of daily living.

18 45. The term "covered family member" means:

19 (a) a child, meaning the biological, adoptive, or foster child, legal 20 ward, a child to whom the caregiver stands in loco parentis, or child to 21 whom the caregiver stood in loco parentis when the care recipient was a 22 minor child;

23 (b) a parent, meaning the biological, foster, step- or adoptive 24 parent, or a legal guardian of the caregiver, or a person who stood in 25 loco parentis when the caregiver was a minor child;

26 (c) a spouse or domestic partner;

27 (d) a child of the caregiver's spouse or domestic partner;

28 (e) a parent of the caregiver's spouse or domestic partner;

29 (f) a grandchild, meaning a child of the caregiver's child;

30 (g) a grandparent, meaning a parent of the caregiver's parent;

31 (h) a sibling, including half-siblings, step-siblings, foster-si-32 blings, and siblings related through adoption; and 33 (i) any other individual related by blood to the caregiver or whose 34 close association with the caregiver is the equivalent of a family 35 relationship.

36 § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 296 of the executive law, as separately 37 amended by chapters 202 and 748 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read 38 as follows:

39 1. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice:

40 (a) For an employer or licensing agency, because of an individual's 41 age, race, creed, color, national origin, citizenship or immigration 42 status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military 43 status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial 44 status, marital status, [~~or~~] status as a victim of domestic violence, or 45 status as a caregiver, to refuse to hire or employ or to bar or to 46 discharge from employment such individual or to discriminate against 47 such individual in compensation or in terms, conditions or privileges of 48 employment.

49 (b) For an employment agency to discriminate against any individual 50 because of age, race, creed, color, national origin, citizenship or 51 immigration status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, 52 military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics,
53 familial status, marital status, status as a caregiver, or status as a 54 victim of domestic violence, in receiving, classifying, disposing or 55 otherwise acting upon applications for its services or in referring an 56 applicant or applicants to an employer or employers.

1 (c) For a labor organization, because of the age, race, creed, color, 2 national origin, citizenship or immigration status, sexual orientation, 3 gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predis-4 posing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital status, status 5 as a caregiver, or status as a victim of domestic violence, of any indi-6 vidual, to exclude or to expel from its membership such individual or to 7 discriminate in any way against any of its members or against any 8 employer or any individual employed by an employer.

9 (d) For any employer or employment agency to print or circulate or 10 cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement or publi-11 cation, or to use any form of application for employment or to make any 12 inquiry in connection with prospective employment, which expresses 13 directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification or discrimination 14 as to age, race, creed, color, national origin, citizenship or immi-
15 gration status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, mili-
16 tary status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics,
17 familial status, marital status, status as a caregiver, or status as a 18 victim of domestic violence, or any intent to make any such limitation, 19 specification or discrimination, unless based upon a bona fide occupa-20 tional qualification; provided, however, that neither this paragraph nor 21 any provision of this chapter or other law shall be construed to prohib-22 it the department of civil service or the department of personnel of any 23 city containing more than one county from requesting information from 24 applicants for civil service examinations concerning any of the afore-25 mentioned characteristics, other than sexual orientation, for the 26 purpose of conducting studies to identify and resolve possible problems 27 in recruitment and testing of members of minority groups to ensure the 28 fairest possible and equal opportunities for employment in the civil 29 service for all persons, regardless of age, race, creed, color, national 30 origin, citizenship or immigration status, sexual orientation or gender 31 identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing 32 genetic characteristics, familial status, [~~or~~] marital status, or status 33 as a caregiver.

34 (e) For any employer, labor organization or employment agency to 35 discharge, expel or otherwise discriminate against any person because 36 [~~he or she~~] such person has opposed any practices forbidden under this 37 article or because [~~he or she~~] such person has filed a complaint, testi-38 fied or assisted in any proceeding under this article.

39 (f) Nothing in this subdivision shall affect any restrictions upon the 40 activities of persons licensed by the state liquor authority with 41 respect to persons under twenty-one years of age.

42 (g) For an employer to compel an employee who is pregnant to take a 43 leave of absence, unless the employee is prevented by such pregnancy 44 from performing the activities involved in the job or occupation in a 45 reasonable manner.

46 (h) For an employer, licensing agency, employment agency or labor 47 organization to subject any individual to harassment because of an indi-48 vidual's age, race, creed, color, national origin, citizenship or immi-
49 gration status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, mili-
50 tary status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, 51 familial status, marital status, status as a caregiver, status as a 52 victim of domestic violence, or because the individual has opposed any 53 practices forbidden under this article or because the individual has 54 filed a complaint, testified or assisted in any proceeding under this 55 article, regardless of whether such harassment would be considered 56 severe or pervasive under precedent applied to harassment claims. Such

1 harassment is an unlawful discriminatory practice when it subjects an 2 individual to inferior terms, conditions or privileges of employment 3 because of the individual's membership in one or more of these protected 4 categories. The fact that such individual did not make a complaint 5 about the harassment to such employer, licensing agency, employment 6 agency or labor organization shall not be determinative of whether such 7 employer, licensing agency, employment agency or labor organization
8 shall be liable. Nothing in this section shall imply that an employee 9 must demonstrate the existence of an individual to whom the employee's 10 treatment must be compared. It shall be an affirmative defense to 11 liability under this subdivision that the harassing conduct does not 12 rise above the level of what a reasonable victim of discrimination with 13 the same protected characteristic or characteristics would consider 14 petty slights or trivial inconveniences.

15 § 4. Section 296 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 16 subdivision 23 to read as follows:

17 23. (a) It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for an employ-18 er, licensing agency, employment agency, or labor organization to refuse 19 to provide a reasonable accommodation to an individual who is known to 20 be a caregiver to enable them to meet the needs of their minor child or 21 care recipient related to the minor child's or care recipient's health, 22 safety, education, or other needs of daily living.

23 (b) Nothing contained in this subdivision shall be construed to 24 require provision of accommodations which can be demonstrated to impose 25 an undue hardship on the operation of an employer's, licensing agency's, 26 employment agency's, or labor organization's business, program or enter-27 prise. In making such a determination with regard to undue hardship the 28 facts to be considered include:

29 (i) the overall size of the business, program or enterprise with 30 respect to the number of employees, number and type of facilities, and 31 size of budget;

32 (ii) the type of operation which the business, program or enterprise 33 is engaged in, including the composition and structure of the workforce; 34 and

35 (iii) the nature and cost of the accommodation needed.

36 § 5. Subdivisions 2 and 3 of section 296-c of the executive law, 37 subdivision 2 as separately amended by chapters 202 and 748 of the laws 38 of 2022, paragraphs a, b and c of subdivision 2 and paragraph b of 39 subdivision 3 as amended by chapter 305 of the laws of 2023, and subdi-40 vision 3 as added by chapter 97 of the laws of 2014, are amended to read 41 as follows:

42 2. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for an employer to:

43 a. refuse to hire or employ or to bar or to discharge from internship 44 an intern or to discriminate against such intern in terms, conditions or 45 privileges of employment as an intern because of the intern's age, race, 46 creed, color, national origin, citizenship or immigration status, sexual 47 orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disa-48 bility, predisposing genetic characteristics, marital status, [~~or~~] 49 status as a victim of domestic violence, or status as a caregiver;

50 b. discriminate against an intern in receiving, classifying, disposing 51 or otherwise acting upon applications for internships because of the 52 intern's age, race, creed, color, national origin, citizenship or immi-
53 gration status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, mili-
54 tary status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics,
55 marital status, [~~or~~] status as a victim of domestic violence, or status
56 as a caregiver;

1 c. print or circulate or cause to be printed or circulated any state-2 ment, advertisement or publication, or to use any form of application 3 for employment as an intern or to make any inquiry in connection with 4 prospective employment, which expresses directly or indirectly, any 5 limitation, specification or discrimination as to age, race, creed, 6 color, national origin, citizenship or immigration status, sexual orien-7 tation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, 8 predisposing genetic characteristics, marital status [~~or~~], status as a 9 victim of domestic violence, or status as a caregiver, or any intent to 10 make any such limitation, specification or discrimination, unless based 11 upon a bona fide occupational qualification; provided, however, that 12 neither this paragraph nor any provision of this chapter or other law 13 shall be construed to prohibit the department of civil service or the 14 department of personnel of any city containing more than one county from 15 requesting information from applicants for civil service internships or 16 examinations concerning any of the aforementioned characteristics, other 17 than sexual orientation, for the purpose of conducting studies to iden-18 tify and resolve possible problems in recruitment and testing of members 19 of minority groups to ensure the fairest possible and equal opportu-20 nities for employment in the civil service for all persons, regardless 21 of age, race, creed, color, national origin, citizenship or immigration 22 status, sexual orientation, military status, sex, disability, predispos-23 ing genetic characteristics, marital status [~~or~~], status as a victim of 24 domestic violence, or status as a caregiver;

25 d. to discharge, expel or otherwise discriminate against any person 26 because [~~he or she~~] such person has opposed any practices forbidden 27 under this article or because [~~he or she~~] such person has filed a 28 complaint, testified or assisted in any proceeding under this article; 29 or

30 e. to compel an intern who is pregnant to take a leave of absence, 31 unless the intern is prevented by such pregnancy from performing the 32 activities involved in the job or occupation in a reasonable manner.

33 3. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for an employer to:
34 a. engage in unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or 35 other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature to an intern when:

36 (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly 37 a term or condition of the intern's employment;

38 (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by the intern is used 39 as the basis for employment decisions affecting such intern; or 40 (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering 41 with the intern's work performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, 42 or offensive working environment; or

43 b. subject an intern to unwelcome harassment based on age, sex, race, 44 creed, color, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, mili-45 tary status, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, marital 46 status, status as a victim of domestic violence, national origin, [~~or~~] 47 citizenship or immigration status, or status as a caregiver, or where 48 such harassment has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering 49 with the intern's work performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, 50 or offensive working environment.

51 § 6. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 52 have become a law.
