AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to establishing the New York state equine industry board

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The agriculture and markets law is amended by adding a new 2 section 387 to read as follows:

3 § 387. New York state equine industry board. 1. There shall be estab-
4 lished within the department the New York state equine industry board,
5 to advise and make recommendations to the state agencies on state
6 government plans, policies and programs affecting all aspects of equine 7 industry, as outlined below, and in such areas as its experience and 8 studies may indicate to be appropriate. The department shall provide 9 necessary secretarial and support services to the board.

10 2. The equine industry board shall consist of eighteen members
11 appointed by the governor, selected for their experience and expertise 12 related to areas of board responsibility. Members shall include the 13 commissioner or their designee who shall act as chairperson of the 14 board, and representatives of the following stakeholder groups: Cornell
15 university college of agriculture and life sciences; Cornell university 16 college of veterinary medicine; a rescue organization or the humane 17 society; an organization involved in horse sanctuaries or racehorse
18 aftercare; an organization involved in horse therapy; an equine veteri-
19 narian; a trail or recreational riding group; the equine support indus-
20 try; an organizer of horse shows, rodeos or competitions; horse boarders
21 or riding stables; an urban equestrian organization; the horse breeding

1 industry; farmers and ranchers; an academic researcher; the New York
2 state horse council or a similar organization; the New York state Veter-
3 inary Medical Society or a similar organization; and a youth equine 4 organization. Members shall be appointed for a term of three years and 5 may serve until their successors are chosen provided, however, that of 6 the members first appointed, six of the members shall serve for a term 7 of one year, six shall serve for a term of two years, and six shall 8 serve for a term of three years. Members shall serve without salary.

9 3. (a) The duties and responsibilities of the equine advisory board
10 shall include, but not be limited to, providing timely advice, comments 11 and recommendations to the commissioner regarding:

12 (i) equine-tourism;

13 (ii) equine industry promotion;

14 (iii) workforce development;

15 (iv) educational and training initiatives;

16 (v) humane treatment of horses; and

17 (vi) other areas of interest identified by the board.

18 (b) The commissioner may delegate to the board such additional duties 19 and responsibilities as are deemed necessary.

20 4. The duties and responsibilities of the equine industry board shall 21 include, but not be limited to, providing timely advice, comments and 22 recommendations to the commissioner and other state agency heads regard-
23 ing all aspects of the equine industry in the state. Concerned state 24 agencies shall be encouraged to establish a working relationship with 25 the board and shall fully cooperate with the board in any requests it 26 shall make.

27 5. The equine industry board may ask other individuals to attend its 28 meetings or work with it on an occasional or regular basis. The board 29 shall set the time and place of its meetings and shall hold at least one 30 meeting per year. The board may establish committees and regional work-31 ing groups as necessary.

32 6. The equine industry board shall produce an annual report to the 33 governor and the legislature on or before the end of each calendar year
34 concerning its activities during the previous year and its program
35 expectations for the succeeding year.

36 7. (a) The equine industry board shall advise the commissioner in 37 establishing procedures for making annual awards and grants, within the 38 limits of appropriations made therefor, recognizing New York equine 39 businesses, individuals, and institutions that are successful in inno-40 vating, marketing, and/or promoting New York equine industries. The 41 commissioner shall coordinate with the commissioner of economic develop-42 ment to determine which department shall make awards and grants in vari-
43 ous categories identified by the equine industry board. These awards and 44 grants shall be given in recognition of exceptional performance, inno-
45 vation and support for New York equine industries by persons, firms and 46 organizations that are principally located within the state of New York
47 and engaged in the operation of New York equine farms, businesses and 48 institutions.

49 (b) The board may annually nominate and forward such nominations for 50 awards and grants to the commissioner consideration in the following 51 categories:

52 (i) veterinary practice and horse welfare;

53 (ii) equine-tourism;

54 (iii) workforce development;

55 (iv) public education;

56 (v) youth equine activities; and

1 (vi) such other awards and grants as the equine advisory board shall 2 recommend.

3 (c) The commissioner shall have the discretion to designate award and 4 grant winners from these nominees. Current members of the board and 5 their businesses are not eligible as nominees.

6 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 7 have become a law.
