IN SENATE

April 10, 2025

Introduced by Sen. RHOADS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the workers' compensation law, in relation to medical treatment for workers' compensation claimants when the workers' compensation claim has been controverted

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 25 of the workers' compensation
2 law is amended by adding a new paragraph (d) to read as follows:

3 (d) (i) In the event the employer or insurance carrier elects to 4 controvert the right to compensation, and it is confirmed that the 5 claimant holds a valid policy of insurance from a health insurance
6 provider in effect on the date of injury, such employer or insurance 7 carrier shall provide medical treatment to the injured worker pursuant 8 to the provisions of section thirteen of this chapter, and payment to 9 health care providers pursuant to procedures established by the board 10 without regard to such controversy.

11 (ii) In the event the board makes a final determination that the claim 12 is not compensable, the employer or insurance carrier may seek 13 reimbursement for medical bills from the claimant's health insurance 14 provider in an amount not to exceed the actual payments made by the 15 employer or insurance carrier on behalf of the claimant for such medical 16 treatment. Within thirty days of receipt by the health insurance provid-
17 er of the medical reports, bills and proof of payment, such health 18 insurance provider shall reimburse the employer or insurance carrier for 19 the full amount of the actual payments made. Bills submitted for 20 reimbursement under this section may not be challenged on the grounds of 21 medical necessity; utilization of an out of network provider or if the 22 established reimbursement rate for the health insurance provider is less 23 than what is provided under the workers' compensation fee schedule.
24 Should the health insurance provider fail to make timely payment, the

1 employer or insurance carrier shall retain a private right of action
2 against such health insurance provider on behalf of the claimant. In no 3 event may the employer, carrier or health insurance provider seek 4 reimbursement of any kind, including the payment of co-payments, from 5 the injured employee, such employee's surviving spouse, dependents, or 6 estate.

7 (iii) The New York compensation insurance rating board shall, no less 8 frequently than on an annual basis, request that insurance carriers 9 report the number of claims in which reimbursement is sought, the 10 amounts of reimbursement sought, and the amounts of reimbursement 11 received. Insurance carriers shall provide data responsive to such 12 request. The New York compensation insurance rating board shall, upon 13 request, provide such data to the board.

14 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
