AN ACT to amend the social services law and the public health law, in relation to a special needs assisted living demonstration program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 3 of section 461-1 of the social services law
2 is amended by adding a new paragraph (o) to read as follows:

3 (o) Notwithstanding paragraphs (m) and (n) of this subdivision, as 4 well as article forty-six-B of the public health law, the commissioner 5 shall establish a special needs assisted living demonstration program to 6 authorize up to three assisted living programs throughout the state to 7 serve individuals with special needs, including, but not limited to,
8 individuals with dementia or cognitive impairments. Each participating 9 assisted living program shall submit information as determined by the 10 commissioner to analyze the feasibility, efficiency and the potential 11 for cost savings associated with providing care to the population under 12 the demonstration program. No later than two years after the effective 13 date of this paragraph, the commissioner shall submit a report to the 14 governor, the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the 15 assembly analyzing the cost and efficiency of the special needs assisted 16 living demonstration program.

17 § 2. Subdivision 6 of section 3614 of the public health law is amended 18 by adding a new paragraph (d) to read as follows:

19 (d) The commissioner shall adjust medical assistance rates of payment 20 for services provided by assisted living programs participating in a 21 demonstration program pursuant to paragraph (o) of subdivision three of 22 section four hundred sixty-one-1 of the social services law to serve 23 individuals with special needs, including, but not limited to, individ-
24 uals with dementia or cognitive impairments. Such rates shall be suffi-25 cient to cover the provision of specialized services, staffing levels,
