February 5, 2026

Introduced by Sen. OBERACKER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Agriculture

AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to the inspection of gas and electricity meters

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 179 of the agriculture and markets law is amended by adding a new subdivision 21 to read as follows:

21. Inspect and test, either personally or through authorized agents, as often as the commissioner deems necessary, but no less than annually, meters and other apparatus used for regulating, supplying and/or ascertaining the quantity of gas or electricity supplied to residential and commercial utility customers to verify that such apparatus are properly maintained and calibrated, and to keep a record of the same.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
