Introduced by Sen. SCARCELLA-SPANTON -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Civil Service and Pensions

AN ACT to amend the retirement and social security law, in relation to a waiver of earnings limitations for certain retired law enforcement officers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 211 of the retirement and social security law is amended by adding a new subdivision 10 to read as follows:

10. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, sections two hundred twelve and four hundred one of this chapter and section five hundred three of the education law and any other law, regulation, rule, local law, or charter to the contrary, a retired law enforcement officer may be employed and earn compensation in a position or positions in the service of the office of the special commissioner of investigations for the New York city school district without any effect on their status as retired and without suspension or diminution of their retirement allowance and without prior approval pursuant to subdivision two of this section. Earnings received as a result of employment in a school district or a board of cooperative educational services in the state shall not be applied to a retired person's earnings when calculating the earnings limitations imposed by subdivisions one and two of section two hundred twelve of this article.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
