44 review; provided, however, that legal services providers shall not be 45 required to pursue appeals or other avenues for relief that are specula-

56 however, that such individual will continue to be provided with legal

1 services pursuant to this subdivision for a reasonable amount of time to

10 covered venue other than an immigration court has no viable application 11 for appeal, challenge to a court order, nor other form of relief from 12 removal from the United States.

13 (d) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (c) of this subdivi-

38 subdivision, sums appropriated to carry out the requirements of this 39 section shall be used to supplement and not supplant any state, local, 40 or private funding that is, or is anticipated to be, expended for the 41 provision of legal services to covered individuals, and the state shall 42 not be required to appropriate any funds for legal services to the 43 extent that obligations associated with the provision of legal services

45 private sources, or by the United States government in satisfaction of 46 any legal obligation.

47 5. Advisory committee. (a) There shall be an advisory committee which 48 shall work, in collaboration with the administrator, to develop

11 shall further consist of no more than one representative of the private

34 (e) The advisory committee's initial meeting shall take place within 35 thirty days of the appointment of all required committee members under 36 paragraph (b) of this subdivision, or within ninety days of the effec-
37 tive date of this section, whichever is sooner. The advisory committee 38 shall meet no less than four times per year. The advisory committee may 42 govern all actions taken by the advisory committee.

43 (f) Membership on the advisory committee shall not constitute the 44 holding of an office. The advisory committee shall not have the power 45 to exercise any portion of the sovereign power of the state. No member 46 of the advisory committee shall be disqualified from holding any public 47 office or employment, nor shall such member forfeit any such office or 48 employment, by reason of the appointment of such member pursuant to this 49 section, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general, special, 50 or local law; ordinance; or city charter.

51 (g) Beginning on September fifteenth, one year after the effective
52 date of this section, the advisory committee shall produce a report
53 concerning its duties pursuant to this section and any related recommen-

55 the administrator to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, and the

1 temporary president of the senate under paragraph (g) of subdivision
2 three of this section.

3 6. No private right of action. Nothing in this section or the adminis-
4 tration or application thereof shall be construed to create a private 5 right of action on the part of any person or entity against the state or 6 any agency, instrumentality, official, or employee thereof.

7 7. Miscellaneous provisions. (a) Any legal services performed by a 8 legal services provider pursuant to this section shall not supplant, 9 replace, or satisfy any obligations or responsibilities of such legal 10 services provider pursuant to any other program, agreement, or contract.

11 (b) The provisions of this section shall supersede conflicting state 12 or local laws, rules, policies, procedures, and practices, except to the 13 extent that the provisions of any such state or local law, rule, policy, 14 procedure, or practice may provide any additional or greater right or 15 protection. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted or applied so 16 as to create any power, duty, or obligation prohibited by federal law.

17 (c) If any provision of this section or any application thereof to any 18 person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect 19 any provision or application of this section that can be given effect 20 without the invalid provision or application. To this end, the 21 provisions of this section are severable.

22 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
