

STATE OF NEW YORK

9773

IN SENATE

April 6, 2026

Introduced by Sens. SEPULVEDA, WEBB -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the judiciary law and the labor law, in relation to creating additional remedies for unlawful discharge, penalty or discrimination on account of the exercise of a juror's right to be absent from employment for jury duty

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 519 of the judiciary law, as amended by section 2
2 of part LL of chapter 55 of the laws of 2025, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 § 519. Right of juror to be absent from employment. Any person who is 5 summoned to serve as a juror under the provisions of this article and 6 who notifies their employer to that effect prior to the commencement of 7 a term of service shall not, on account of absence from employment by 8 reason of such jury service, be subject to discharge [~~or~~], penalty, or 9 discrimination in any other manner. An employer may, however, withhold 10 wages of any such employee serving as a juror during the period of such 11 service; provided that an employer who employs more than ten employees 12 shall not withhold the first seventy-two dollars of such juror's daily 13 wages during the first three days of jury service. Withholding of wages 14 in accordance with this section shall not be deemed a penalty or 15 discrimination. Violation of this section shall constitute a criminal 16 contempt of court punishable pursuant to section seven hundred fifty of 17 this chapter and shall also constitute a violation of section two 18 hundred fifteen of the labor law and be subject to the civil penalties 19 and civil action provided for thereunder.

20 § 2. Paragraph 7 of subdivision A of section 750 of the judiciary law, 21 as amended by chapter 823 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as 22 follows:

23 7. Wilful failure to obey any mandate, process, or notice issued 24 pursuant to [~~articles~~] article sixteen[~~, seventeen, eighteen, eighteen-a~~ 25 ~~or eighteen-b~~] of [~~the judiciary law~~] this chapter, or to rules adopted 26 pursuant thereto, or to any other statute relating thereto, or refusal

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 to be sworn as provided therein, or subjection of an employee to 2 discharge ~~[or]~~, penalty, or discrimination in any other manner on 3 account of ~~[his]~~ their absence from employment by reason of jury or 4 subpoenaed witness service in violation of this chapter or section 5 215.11 of the penal law. Applications to punish the accused for a 6 contempt specified in this subdivision may be made by notice of motion 7 or by order to show cause, and shall be made returnable at the term of 8 the supreme court at which contested motions are heard, or of the county 9 court if the supreme court is not in session.

10 § 3. Section 215 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 564 of the 11 laws of 2010, paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 604 12 of the laws of 2022, paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 and paragraph (a) of 13 subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 537 of the laws of 2014, is amended 14 to read as follows:

15 § 215. ~~[Penalties]~~ Civil penalties and civil action; prohibited retal-
16 iation. 1. (a) No employer or ~~[his or her]~~ their agent, or the officer 17 or agent of any corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, 18 or any other person, shall discharge, threaten, penalize, or in any 19 other manner discriminate or retaliate against any employee (i) because 20 such employee has made a complaint to ~~[his or her]~~ their employer, or to 21 the commissioner or ~~[his or her]~~ their authorized representative, or to 22 the attorney general or any other person, that the employer has engaged 23 in conduct that the employee, reasonably and in good faith, believes 24 violates any provision of this chapter, or any order issued by the 25 commissioner, or (ii) because such employer or person believes that such 26 employee has made a complaint to ~~[his or her]~~ their employer, or to the 27 commissioner or ~~[his or her]~~ their authorized representative, or to the 28 attorney general, or to any other person that the employer has violated 29 any provision of this chapter, or any order issued by the commissioner, 30 or (iii) because such employee has caused to be instituted or is about 31 to institute a proceeding under or related to this chapter, or (iv) 32 because such employee has provided information to the commissioner or 33 ~~[his or her]~~ their authorized representative or the attorney general, or 34 (v) because such employee has testified or is about to testify in an 35 investigation or proceeding under this chapter, or (vi) because such 36 employee has otherwise exercised rights protected under this chapter, or 37 (vii) because the employer has received an adverse determination from 38 the commissioner involving the employee, or (viii) because such employee 39 has used any legally protected absence pursuant to federal, local, or 40 state law, including because such employee has exercised their right to 41 be absent from employment pursuant to section five hundred nineteen of 42 the judiciary law by reason of jury service.

43 An employee complaint or other communication need not make explicit 44 reference to any section or provision of this chapter to trigger the 45 protections of this section.

46 As used in this section, to threaten, penalize, or in any other manner 47 discriminate or retaliate against any employee includes; threatening to 48 contact or contacting United States immigration authorities or otherwise 49 reporting or threatening to report an employee's suspected citizenship 50 or immigration status or the suspected citizenship or immigration status 51 of an employee's family or household member, as defined in subdivision 52 two of section four hundred fifty-nine-a of the social services law, to 53 a federal, state or local agency; or assessing any demerit, occurrence, 54 any other point, or deductions from an allotted bank of time, which 55 subjects or could subject an employee to disciplinary action, which may

1 include but not be limited to failure to receive a promotion or loss of 2 pay.

3 (b) If after investigation the commissioner finds that an employer or 4 person has violated any provision of this section, the commissioner may, 5 by an order which shall describe particularly the nature of the 6 violation, assess the employer or person a civil penalty of not less 7 than one thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars provided, however, 8 that if the commissioner finds that the employer has violated the 9 provisions of this section in the preceding six years, [~~he or she~~] the 10 commissioner may assess a civil penalty of not less than one thousand 11 nor more than twenty thousand dollars. The commissioner may also order 12 all appropriate relief including enjoining the conduct of any person or 13 employer; ordering payment of liquidated damages to the employee by the 14 person or entity in violation; and, where the person or entity in 15 violation is an employer ordering rehiring or reinstatement of the 16 employee to [~~his or her~~] their former position or an equivalent posi-17 tion, and an award of lost compensation or an award of front pay in lieu 18 of reinstatement and an award of lost compensation. Liquidated damages 19 shall be calculated as an amount not more than twenty thousand dollars.
20 The commissioner may assess liquidated damages on behalf of every 21 employee aggrieved under this section, in addition to any other remedies 22 permitted by this section.

23 (c) The provisions of section two hundred thirteen of this article 24 shall not apply to the violations specified in this section.

25 (d) This section shall not apply to employees of the state or any 26 municipal subdivisions or departments thereof.

27 2. (a) [~~An~~] In addition to the civil penalties provided for under 28 subdivision one of this section, an employee may bring a civil action in 29 a court of competent jurisdiction against any employer or persons 30 alleged to have violated the provisions of this section. The court shall 31 have jurisdiction to restrain violations of this section, within two 32 years after such violation, regardless of the dates of employment of the 33 employee, and to order all appropriate relief, including enjoining the 34 conduct of any person or employer; ordering payment of liquidated 35 damages, costs and reasonable attorneys' fees to the employee by the 36 person or entity in violation; and, where the person or entity in 37 violation is an employer, ordering rehiring or reinstatement of the 38 employee to [~~his or her~~] their former position with restoration of 39 seniority or an award of front pay in lieu of reinstatement, and an 40 award of lost compensation and damages, costs and reasonable attorneys' 41 fees. Liquidated damages shall be calculated as an amount not more than 42 twenty thousand dollars. The court shall award liquidated damages to 43 every employee aggrieved under this section, in addition to any other 44 remedies permitted by this section. The statute of limitations shall be 45 tolled from the date an employee files a complaint with the commissioner 46 or the commissioner commences an investigation, whichever is earlier, 47 until an order to comply issued by the commissioner becomes final, or 48 where the commissioner does not issue an order, until the date on which 49 the commissioner notifies the complainant that the investigation has 50 concluded. Investigation by the commissioner shall not be a prerequisite 51 to nor a bar against a person bringing a civil action under this 52 section.

53 (b) At or before the commencement of any action under this section, 54 notice thereof shall be served upon the attorney general by the employ-55 ee.

1 3. Any employer or [~~his or her~~ their] agent, or the officer or agent 2 of any corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, or any 3 other person who violates subdivision one of this section shall be guil-
4 ty of a class B misdemeanor.
5 § 4. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 6 have become a law.
