

STATE OF NEW YORK

9787

IN SENATE

April 6, 2026

Introduced by Sen. SEPULVEDA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the lien law, the general business law and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to liens against commercial towing companies for illegal and improper towing practices; to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to grounds for attachment; to amend the business corporation law, in relation to holding shareholders of non-publicly traded corporations personally liable for certain judgments; and to amend the limited liability company law, in relation to holding the ten members with the largest ownership interests in a company personally liable for certain judgments

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The lien law is amended by adding a new article 7-A to read 2 as follows:

ARTICLE 7-A

LIEN ON COMMERCIAL TOWING COMPANIES FOR IMPROPER PRACTICES

3
4 Section 170. Lien for violations associated with illegal or improper 5 practices relating to the towing of motor vehicles.
6

171. Enforcement of lien.

7
8 § 170. Lien for violations associated with illegal or improper prac-
9 tices relating to the towing of motor vehicles. 1. A person shall have a 10 lien against any interest in property of a commercial towing company 11 arising out of any claim of illegal or improper practices relating to 12 the towing of motor vehicles, as defined in section one hundred seven-b 13 of the vehicle and traffic law, including by not limited to section 14 19-169.1 of the administrative code of the city of New York, for the 15 agreed price of such towing or, if the towing was without the prior 16 consent or authorization of such motor vehicle owner, the amount charged 17 for the service, from the time of filing a notice of such lien as 18 prescribed in this chapter. In a city with a population of one million 19 or more, charges for towing and associated storage shall not exceed the 20 amounts set forth in section 20-509 of the administrative code of the 1 city of New York. A lien under this section may be had for any amount 2 over the limits set forth in such section. A lien under this article may 3 be had against an interest in real property and against an interest in 4 personal property that can be sufficiently described within the meaning 5 of section 9-108 of the uniform commercial code, except that a lien 6 under this article shall not extend to deposit accounts or goods as 7 those terms are defined in section 9-102 of the uniform commercial 8 code.

9 2. Notice of a lien under this section may be filed at any time not 10 later than three years following violation giving rise to the claim. A 11 notice of lien on personal property must be filed, together with a 12 financing statement, in the filing office as set forth in section 9-501 13 of the uniform commercial code.

14 3. Within five days before or thirty days after filing the notice of a 15 lien authorized pursuant to this article, the lienor shall serve a copy 16 of such notice upon the owner of the commercial towing company, if a 17 natural person, (a) by delivering the same to such owner personally, or 18 if the owner cannot be found, to their agent or attorney, or (b) by 19 leaving it as the owner's last known place of residence or business, 20 with a person of suitable age and discretion, or (c) by registered or 21 certified mail addressed to the owner's last known place of residence or 22 business, or (d) if such person owns real property, by affixing a copy 23 thereof conspicuously on such property, between the hours of nine 24 o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon. The lienor 25 also shall, within thirty days after filing the notice of lien, affix a 26 copy thereof conspicuously on the real property identified in the notice 27 of lien, between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and four 28 o'clock in the afternoon. If the commercial towing company be a corpo-29 ration, said service shall be made (i) by delivering such copy to and 30 leaving the same with the president, vice-president, secretary or clerk 31 to the corporation, the cashier, treasurer or a director or managing 32 agent thereof, personally, within the state, or (ii) if such officer 33 cannot be found within the state, by affixing a copy thereof conspicu-34 ously on such property between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon 35 and four o'clock in the afternoon, or (iii) by registered or certified 36 mail addressed to its last known place of business, or (iv) by delivery 37 to the secretary of the department of state in the same manner as 38 required by subparagraph one of paragraph (b) of section three hundred 39 six of the business corporation law. Failure to file proof of such a 40 service with the county clerk within thirty-five days after the notice 41 of lien is filed shall terminate the notice as a lien. Until service of 42 the notice has been made, as above provided, an owner, without knowledge 43 of the lien, shall be protected in payment made in good faith to any 44 other person claiming a lien.

45 4. (a) No lien on real property under this section shall be a lien for 46 a longer period than one year after the notice of lien has been filed, 47 unless an extension to such lien is filed with the county clerk of the 48 county in which the notice of lien is filed within one year from the 49 filing of the original notice of lien, continuing such lien and such 50 lien shall be redocketed as of the date of filing such extension. Such 51 extension shall contain the names of the lienor and the owner of the 52 real property against whose interest therein such lien is claimed, a 53 brief description of the property affected by such lien, the amount of 54 such lien, and the date of filing the notice of lien. No lien shall be 55 continued by such extension for more than one year from the filing ther-56 eof. In the event an action is not commenced to obtain judgment on the

1 claim or to foreclose the lien within such extended period, such lien 2 shall be extinguished unless an order be granted by a court of record or 3 a judge or justice thereof, continuing such lien, and such lien shall 4 be redocketed as of the date of granting such order and a statement made 5 that such lien is continued by virtue of such order.

6 (b) No lien on personal property under this section shall be a lien 7 for a longer period than one year after the financing statement has been 8 recorded, unless an extension to such lien, is filed with the filing 9 office in which the financing statement is required to be filed pursuant 10 to section 9-501 of the uniform commercial code within one year from the 11 filing of the original financing statement, continuing such lien. Such 12 extension shall contain the names of the lienor and the owner of the 13 property against whose interest therein such lien is claimed, a brief 14 description of the prior financing statement to be extended, and the 15 date of filing the prior financing statement. No lien shall be continued 16 by such extension for more than one year from the filing thereof. In the 17 event an action is not commenced to obtain judgement on the claim or to 18 foreclose the lien within such extended period, such lien shall be 19 extinguished unless an order be granted by a court of record or a judge 20 or justice thereof, continuing such lien, and such lien shall be refiled 21 as of the date of granting such order and a statement made that such 22 lien is continued by virtue of such order.

23 (c) If a lienor is made a party defendant in an action to enforce 24 another lien, and the plaintiff or such defendant has filed a notice of 25 the pendency of the action within the time prescribed in this section, 26 the lien of such defendant is thereby continued. Such action shall be 27 deemed an action to enforce the lien of such defendant lienor. The fail-28 ure to file a notice of pendency of action shall not abate the action as 29 to any person liable for the payment of the debt specified in the notice 30 of lien, and the action may be prosecuted to judgment against such 31 person. The provisions of this section in regard to continuing liens 32 shall apply to liens discharged by deposit or by order on the filing of 33 an undertaking. Where a lien is discharged by deposit or by order, a 34 notice of pendency of action shall not be filed.

35 (d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a lienor commences a foreclosure 36 action or an action to obtain a judgment on the claim within one year 37 from the filing of the notice of lien on real property or the recording 38 of the financing statement creating lien on personal property, the lien 39 shall be extended during the pendency of the action and for one hundred 40 twenty days following the entry of final judgment in such action, unless 41 the action results in a final judgment or administrative order in the 42 lienor's favor on the claims and the lienor commences a foreclosure 43 action, in which instance the lien shall be valid during the pendency of 44 the foreclosure action. If a lien is extended due to the pendency of a 45 foreclosure action or an action to obtain a judgment on the claim, the 46 lienor shall file a notice of such pendency and extension with the coun-47 ty clerk of the county in which the notice of lien is filed, containing 48 the names of the parties to the action, the object of the action, a 49 brief description of the property affected thereby, and the time of 50 filing the notice of lien, or in the case of a lien on personal property 51 shall file such notice with the office authorized to accept financing 52 statements pursuant to section 9-501 of the uniform commercial code.

53 (e) A lien, the duration of which has been extended by the filing of a 54 notice of the pendency of an action as above provided, shall neverthe-55 less terminate as a lien after such notice has been canceled as provided 56 in section sixty-five hundred fourteen of the civil practice law and

1 rules or has ceased to be effective as constructive notice as provided 2 in section sixty-five hundred thirteen of the civil practice law and 3 rules.

4 § 171. Enforcement of lien. 1. A lien on real property authorized 5 under this article may be enforced against such property, and against a 6 person liable for the judgment upon which the lien is founded, by an 7 action, by the lienor, their assignee or legal representative, in the 8 supreme court or in a county court otherwise having jurisdiction, 9 regardless of the amount of such judgment, or in a court which has 10 jurisdiction in an action founded on a contract for a sum of money 11 equivalent to the amount of such judgment, in the same manner as 12 prescribed in article three of this chapter.

13 2. A lien on personal property specified in this article may imme-14 diately be enforced against the property through a foreclosure as 15 prescribed in article nine of the uniform commercial code, or upon judg-16 ment obtained by the owner of the motor vehicle, or the attorney general 17 of the state of New York, and may be enforced in any manner available to 18 the judgment creditor pursuant to article nine of the uniform commercial 19 code or other applicable laws.

20 3. A lien, where notice has been filed on real property or a bond 21 given to discharge the same, may be vacated and cancelled or a deposit 22 made to discharge a lien pursuant to section twenty of this chapter may 23 be returned, by an order of a court of record. Before such order shall 24 be granted, a notice shall be served upon the lienor, either personally 25 or by leaving it at the lienor's last known place of residence or attor-26 ney's place of business, with a person of suitable age, with directions 27 to deliver it to the lienor. Such notice shall require the lienor to 28 commence an action to enforce the lien, or to commence an action to 29 obtain judgment on the claim upon which the lien was established, within 30 a time specified in the notice, not less than ninety days from the time 31 of service, or show cause at a special term of a court of record, or at 32 a county court, in a county in which the property is situated, at a time 33 and place specified therein, why the notice of lien filed or the bond 34 given should not be vacated and cancelled, or the deposit returned, as 35 the case may be. Proof of such service and that the lienor has not 36 commenced the action to foreclose such lien or an action to obtain judg-37 ment on the claim upon which the lien was established, as directed in 38 the notice, shall be made by affidavit, at the time of applying for such 39 order.

40 § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 399-xx of the general business law, as 41 added by chapter 690 of the laws of 2004, is amended to read as follows:

42 2. Requirements. A commercial tower who responds to a call for assist-43 ance from an owner or operator of a vehicle that is inoperable or cannot 44 be safely operated or who offers to transport, repair, or render safely 45 operable such a vehicle shall, in compliance with any reasonable request 46 of an owner or operator of such vehicle, repair the vehicle or transport 47 the vehicle and its occupants to a reasonably safe location where 48 repairs can be made. The commercial tower shall not be required to 49 transport all vehicle occupants if the number of occupants exceeds the 50 number of passengers that can be safely transported. The owner or opera-51 tor of the vehicle shall be liable to the commercial tower for the cost 52 of towing and repair services provided. A written invoice stating the 53 cost of the towing and/or services, signed by both the commercial tower 54 and the owner or authorized user of the motor vehicle, shall be provided 55 prior to any towing or services being performed. The commercial tower 56 shall accept cash and all other forms of payment that such commercial

1 tower accepts in the ordinary course of business, including credit and 2 debit cards as those terms are defined in section five hundred eleven of 3 this chapter as payment for all or part of the charges for towing and 4 repair services accepted and provided. The commercial tower may require 5 such proof of identification from persons making payments in forms other 6 than cash as the commercial tower requires for such payments in the 7 ordinary course of business. If the owner or operator of a vehicle 8 declines services of the commercial tower or cannot or will not provide 9 payment and identification for towing or repair services, a commercial 10 tower shall notify law enforcement about the location and identification 11 of the vehicle and its occupants. The provisions of this section do not 12 apply to a vehicle which is lawfully parked at the home of the vehicle's 13 owner or operator.

14 § 3. Section 20-509 of the administrative code of the city of New York 15 is amended by adding a new subdivision e to read as follows:

16 e. A written invoice stating the cost of the towing and/or repair 17 services, signed by both the commercial tower and the owner or author-18 ized user of the motor vehicle, shall be provided prior to any towing or 19 repair services being performed, except where the towing was without the 20 prior consent or authorization of such motor vehicle owner. Upon the 21 release of a towed motor vehicle the owner shall receive an invoice 22 stating the amount charged and the amount paid.

23 § 4. Subdivision 5 of section 6201 of the civil practice law and 24 rules, as amended by chapter 860 of the laws of 1977 and as renumbered 25 by chapter 618 of the laws of 1992, is amended and a new subdivision 6 26 is added to read as follows:

27 5. the cause of action is based on a judgment, decree or order of a 28 court of the United States or of any other court which is entitled to 29 full faith and credit in this state, or on a judgment which qualifies 30 for recognition under the provisions of article 53[+] of this chapter; 31 or

32 6. the cause of action is based on claims of illegal or improper prac-33 tices relating to the towing of motor vehicles, including but not limit-34 ed to violations of section 19-169.1 of the administrative code of the 35 city of New York.

36 § 5. The business corporation law is amended by adding a new section 37 631 to read as follows:

38 § 631. Liability of shareholders of commercial towing companies for 39 claims of illegal or improper towing practices.

40 (a) The ten largest shareholders, as determined by the fair value of 41 their beneficial interest in every domestic corporation or of any 42 foreign corporation, no shares of which are listed on a national securi-43 ties exchange or regularly quoted in an over-the-counter market by one 44 or more members of a national or an affiliated securities association, 45 shall jointly and severally be personally liable for all claims due and 46 owing to any person as a result of an action to recover damages for 47 violations associated with illegal or improper practices relating to the 48 towing of motor vehicles, including but not limited to violations of 49 section 19-169.1 of the administrative code of the city of New York.

50 (b) A shareholder who has paid more than their pro rata share under 51 this section shall be entitled to contribution pro rata from the other 52 shareholders liable under this section with respect to the excess so 53 paid, over and above their pro rata share, and may sue them jointly or 54 severally or any number of them to recover the amount due from them.
55 Such recovery may be had in a separate action. As used in this para-56 graph, "pro rata" means in proportion to beneficial share interest.

1 Before a shareholder may claim contribution from other shareholders
2 under this paragraph, such shareholder shall give them notice in writing 3 that the shareholder intends to hold them so liable. Such notice shall 4 be given by such shareholder within twenty days after the date that 5 notice was given under paragraph (a) of this section.

6 § 6. Section 609 of the limited liability company law is amended by 7 adding a new subdivision (e) to read as follows:

8 (e) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b) of this 9 section, the ten members with the largest percentage ownership interest 10 of every limited liability company, shall jointly and severally be 11 personally liable for all claims due and owing to any person as a result 12 of an action to recover damages for violations associated with illegal 13 or improper practices relating to the towing of motor vehicles, includ-14 ing but not limited to violations of section 19-169.1 of the administra-
15 tive code of the city of New York.

16 § 7. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 17 have become a law.
