15 (12) whether there was a motor vehicle accident; and

16 (13) whether the stop resulted in the seizure and/or impoundment of 17 the vehicle, and the basis for such seizure.

18 (d) Law enforcement agencies subject to this section shall not report 19 or make publicly available the address, social security number, or other 20 unique personal identifying information of the persons stopped,
21 searched, or subjected to a property seizure. Law enforcement agencies 22 are solely responsible for ensuring that restricted information of the 23 individual stopped is not transmitted to the department of criminal 24 justice or otherwise released to the public.

25 (e) Each law enforcement agency covered by this section shall develop 26 and make publicly available a policy governing review and auditing of 27 stop data collected to ensure officer compliance with the requirements
28 of this article.

29 § 1109. Effect. (a) Nothing in this section shall be construed to 30 preempt or limit existing remedies or causes of action that may be trig-
31 gered by violations of this article.

32 (b) (1) This article shall supercede any local law or ordinance that 33 would expand the bases for an officer to engage in a stop, search, cita-
34 tion, detention, arrest, or questioning beyond those specifically 35 enumerated in this article, or otherwise conflict with or frustrate the 36 purpose of any provision of this article.

37 (2) This article shall not preempt local laws that would restrict 38 further the role of law enforcement officers in traffic enforcement, 39 including by:

40 (i) assigning certain traffic enforcement functions to local officials 41 or personnel who are authorized to conduct such functions instead of 42 sworn law enforcement officers; or

43 (ii) placing additional limits on officer conduct or questioning
44 during traffic stops.

45 § 2. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section
46 60.77 to read as follows:

47 § 60.77 Rules of evidence; admissibility of evidence derived from the 48 unlawful stop of a motor vehicle, bicyclist or pedestrian.

49 1. Evidence derived from the unlawful stop of a motor vehicle, bicy-50 clist or pedestrian by a law enforcement officer that was primarily 51 based on a person's race, creed, color, national origin, or other status
52 protected under the human rights law, shall be inadmissible in a crimi-
53 nal action against such person or any other person whose freedom of 54 movement was affected by the stop.

55 2. For purposes of this section a stop is unlawful when, notwithstand-
56 ing the existence of probable cause or reasonable suspicion to believe a

1 person has committed a traffic infraction or a petty offense defined in 2 any city, town or village code, the law enforcement officer would not 3 have initiated the stop but for a person's race, creed, color, national 4 origin or other status protected under the human rights law.

5 3. A motion to exclude evidence pursuant to this section shall be made 6 and determined in the same manner as a pre-trial motion to suppress 7 evidence pursuant to article seven hundred ten of this chapter, and the 8 defendant shall bear the burden of proving by a preponderance of the 9 evidence that the stop was unlawful within the meaning of this section.
10 In evaluating the motion to exclude, the court shall consider the nature
11 of the traffic infraction or offense giving rise to the stop, the law 12 enforcement officer's usual duties with respect to enforcement of the 13 vehicle and traffic law or city, town or village code provision, any 14 evidence of a pattern of discriminatory enforcement of such law within 15 the jurisdiction, and any other evidence that may prove or disprove that 16 such law was a pretext for an unlawful stop within the meaning of this 17 section.

18 4. An order granting a motion to exclude evidence pursuant to this 19 section shall be appealable by the people in the same manner as an order 20 suppressing evidence pursuant to subdivision eight of section 450.20 of 21 this chapter, and an order denying a motion shall be appealable by the 22 defendant pursuant to section 450.10 of this chapter.

23 § 3. Section 837 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 24 subdivision 25 to read as follows:

25 25. Accept information from law enforcement agencies pursuant to 26 subdivision (c) of section eleven hundred eight of the vehicle and traf-
27 fic law and make the information, including the unique identification 28 number of the officer making the stop, publicly available online in a 29 manner that is clear, understandable, analyzable, and accessible to the 30 public.

31 § 4. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-
32 ing the date upon which it shall have become a law.
