AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring an annual report on perpetrators of violent crimes resulting in the death of a crime victim

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 837-a of the executive law is amended by adding a new subdivision 10 to read as follows:

10. Present to the governor, temporary president of the senate, minority leader of the senate, speaker of the assembly and the minority leader of the assembly an annual report analyzing the perpetrators of violent crimes resulting in the death of a crime victim. Such report shall include the crimes with which the defendant was charged, the county within which the indictment or superior court information was filed, the disposition thereof including, but not limited to, as the case may be, dismissal, acquittal and the offense to which the defendant pleaded guilty, the offense the defendant was convicted of after trial and the sentence imposed, the parole or probationary status of the defendant at the time of indictment, the number of prior felony arrests, and the age of the defendant at the time of each such arrest. Such report shall exclude domestic violence-related deaths, as such term is defined by subdivision ten of section five hundred seventy-five of this chapter. Each annual report shall pertain to the immediately preceding year and be presented no later than June first of each year.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
