Introduced by M. of A. RAJKUMAR -- read once and referred to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the dispensing of certain prescriptions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph b-1 of subdivision 1 of section 6807 of the education law, as amended by chapter 108 of the laws of 2025, is amended to read as follows:

b-1. (1) Notwithstanding paragraph b of this section, [the prescription label for] mifepristone or misoprostol may [include the name or address of the dispensing health care practice instead of the name of the dispenser] be dispensed without the name and address of the dispenser and patient included on the prescription label, provided that such label includes a prescription number or other means of identifying the prescription.

(2) Any person who dispenses mifepristone or misoprostol pursuant to this paragraph shall maintain a log with the prescription numbers, name and address of the dispenser and patient, and information otherwise required on the prescription label pursuant to paragraph b of this subdivision. Such log shall include records for a period of at least five years following the date such prescription is dispensed.

(3) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prohibit the investigation of an activity that is punishable as a crime under the laws of this state, provided that only such records that are strictly necessary to the investigation of such potential crime shall be disclosed.

§ 2. Subdivision 1-a of section 6810 of the education law, as amended by chapter 108 of the laws of 2025, is amended to read as follows:

1-a. Notwithstanding subdivision one of this section, at the prescriber's request, ~~[the prescription label for]~~ mifepristone or misoprostol shall ~~[include the name or address of the prescribing health care practice instead of the name of the prescriber]~~ be dispensed without the name and address of the owner of the establishment in which it
