AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to regulatory penalties, fines, and/or revocation for small business

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 170-c of the executive law, as amended by section 1 of subpart B of part XX of chapter 55 of the laws of 2020 and subdivision 4 as amended by chapter 39 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

§ 170-c. Regulatory penalties, fines, and/or revocation for small businesses. 1. Unless explicitly exempted or excluded by any other law, rule or regulation, upon a first time violation of a state agency's rules or regulations related to paperwork submitted to a state agency or actions or omissions that [~~are determined by such state agency to be de minimus~~] are made in good faith and do not involve mendacity, a small business, as defined in subdivision eight of section one hundred two of the state administrative procedure act, shall be afforded a cure period or other opportunity for ameliorative action if the violation can be corrected, the successful completion of which will prevent the imposition of penalties, fines, and/or revocations on the party or parties subject to enforcement of such de minimus violation. However, no waiver of penalties, fines, and/or revocations or cure period or other opportunity for ameliorative action may be given if the agency determines that the violation may result in a natural resource damage claim or serious actual harm, or may present an endangerment to public safety, human health or the environment, is a violation of human or civil rights law, results in loss of employee wages or benefits, interferes with any remedy, review, or resolution related to harassment or discrimination claims, was or is a willful violation, involves tax fraud, violates requirements related to federal funding to the state, relates to state funding or procurement, is similar to prior violations, is a penal law violation, relates to a material or substantive portion of the business, or is in contravention of the public interest and/or policy reflected by
