Introduced by M. of A. NORBER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing the offense of obstructing a police officer or peace officer

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 195.09 to read as follows:

§ 195.09 Obstructing a police officer or peace officer.

A person is guilty of obstructing a police officer or peace officer when such person intentionally interferes with, inhibits, or attempts to interfere with or inhibit a police officer or a peace officer from performing their lawful duties. For the purposes of this section, "interferes with, inhibits, or attempts to interfere with or inhibit a police officer or peace officer from performing their lawful duties" includes, but is not limited to: (i) spitting, throwing or spilling items, including snow, ice, or other substances, liquid or otherwise, at or on such officer; and (ii) pushing, shoving, kicking, physically impeding or otherwise subjecting such officer to physical contact.

Obstructing a police officer or peace officer is a class E felony.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
