AN ACT to amend the highway law, in relation to dedicating a portion of the state highway system to first responders

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The highway law is amended by adding a new section 344-s to read as follows:

§ 344-s. Portion of the state highway system to be dedicated to First Responders. All that portion of the state highway system constituting state route 908H in the county of Kings, beginning at its intersection with Shore Parkway and terminating at its intersection with Avenue Z, shall be dedicated to First Responders.

§ 2. The commissioner of transportation shall provide for the installation and maintenance of adequate signing of the state highway system as dedicated pursuant to section one of this act, provided that such signage shall state "Highway Dedicated to First Responders". However, to avoid confusion and to limit any possible disruption of commerce, the dedication called for pursuant to section one of this act shall be one of ceremonial nature and the official name of such highway shall not be changed as a result of this act.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
