27 calendar year. Once vested, such credit shall not be withheld,
28 forfeited, or canceled.

29 (a-1) Time allowances that have not yet been credited toward a
30 person's sentence may be withheld, forfeited or canceled in whole or in 31 part for violation of institutional rules, as demonstrated at a hearing
32 by a preponderance of the evidence. Such restrictions shall be limited 33 to the pro rata share of credit within the calendar year that the 34 offense is committed. If such time allowance is withheld, forfeited or 35 canceled in whole or in part, further allowances, not to exceed the 36 allowances set forth in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subdivision, may 37 be reinstated for good behavior and efficient and willing performance of 38 duties assigned or progress and achievement in an assigned treatment
39 program. Following any final determination withholding, forfeiting, or 40 canceling a time allowance, the incarcerated person shall have the right
41 to take an administrative appeal to the central office of the department
42 and shall be advised of the right to seek legal assistance in the taking 43 of such appeal. The department shall adopt regulations in accordance 44 with this provision.

45 (b) A person serving an indeterminate sentence of imprisonment ~~[may]~~

49 (c) A person serving a determinate sentence of imprisonment ~~[may]~~ 50 shall receive a time allowance against the term of ~~[his or her]~~ their 51 sentence ~~[not to exceed one-seventh]~~ of one-half of the term imposed by

53 (d) (i) ~~[Except as provided in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph,~~
54 ~~every]~~ Every person under the custody of the department or confined in a
55 facility in the department of mental hygiene serving an indeterminate
56 sentence of imprisonment with a minimum period of one year or more or a determinate sentence of imprisonment of one year or more [~~imposed pursuant to section 70.70 or 70.71 of the penal law,~~] may earn a merit time allowance.

(ii) [~~Such merit time allowance shall not be available to any person serving an indeterminate sentence authorized for an A-I felony offense, other than an A-I felony offense defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law, or any sentence imposed for a violent felony offense as defined in section 70.02 of the penal law, manslaughter in the second degree, vehicular manslaughter in the second degree, vehicular manslaughter in the first degree, criminally negligent homicide, an offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law, incest, or an offense defined in article two hundred sixty three of the penal law, or aggravated harassment of an employee by an incarcerated individual.~~

(iii)] The merit time allowance credit against the minimum period of the indeterminate sentence shall be [~~one-sixth~~] one-half of the minimum period imposed by the court [~~except that such credit shall be one-third of the minimum period imposed by the court for an A-I felony offense defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law~~]. In the case of such a determinate sentence, in addition to the time allowance credit authorized by paragraph (c) of this subdivision, the merit time allowance credited against the term of the determinate sentence pursuant to this paragraph shall be [~~one-seventh~~] one-quarter of the term imposed by the court.

[~~(iv)~~] (iii) Such merit time allowance [~~may~~] shall be granted when an incarcerated individual successfully participates in the work and treatment program assigned pursuant to section eight hundred five of this article [~~and~~], including but not limited to when such incarcerated individual obtains a general equivalency diploma, an alcohol and substance abuse treatment certificate, a vocational trade certificate [~~following at least six months of vocational programming~~], at least eighteen credits in a program registered by the state education department from a degree-granting higher education institution or performs at least four hundred hours of service as part of a community work crew, or successfully completes one or more "significant programmatic accomplishments" as defined in paragraph (c) of subdivision one of section eight hundred three-b of this article. The commissioner may designate additional programs and achievements for which merit time shall be granted. Once granted, such allowances shall not be withheld, forfeited, or cancelled. Where the institution in which the incarcerated individual is confined does not provide opportunities for every incarcerated individual to earn merit time allowances, such merit time allowance shall be automatically credited against the incarcerated individual's sentence according to subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph.

[~~Such allowance shall be withheld for any serious disciplinary infraction or upon a judicial determination that the person, while an incarcerated individual, commenced or continued a civil action, proceeding or claim that was found to be frivolous as defined in subdivision (c) of section eight thousand three hundred three-a of the civil practice law and rules, or an order of a federal court pursuant to rule 11 of the federal rules of civil procedure imposing sanctions in an action commenced by a person, while an incarcerated individual, against a state agency, officer or employee.~~

6 forth in this paragraph shall apply retroactively and shall be credited 7 toward every incarcerated individual's sentence within ninety days of 8 the chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-five that amended this 9 paragraph.

10 2. If a person is serving more than one sentence, the authorized
11 allowances may be granted separately against the term or maximum term of 12 each sentence or, where consecutive sentences are involved, against the 13 aggregate maximum term. Such allowances shall be calculated as follows:

14 (a) A person serving two or more indeterminate sentences which run
15 concurrently [~~may~~] shall receive a time allowance [~~not to exceed one-~~
16 ~~third~~] of one-half of the indeterminate sentence which has the longest 17 unexpired time to run.

18 (b) A person serving two or more indeterminate sentences which run
19 consecutively [~~may~~] shall receive a time allowance [~~not to exceed one-~~
20 ~~third~~] of one-half of the aggregate maximum term.

34 (f) A person serving one or more indeterminate sentence and one or 35 more determinate sentence which run consecutively [~~may~~] shall receive a 36 time allowance [~~not to exceed~~] of the sum of [~~one-third~~] one-half of the 37 maximum or aggregate maximum of the indeterminate sentence or sentences
38 and [~~one-seventh~~] one-half of the term or aggregate maximum of the 39 determinate sentence or sentences.

40 2-a. If a person is serving more than one sentence, the authorized
41 merit time allowances may be granted against the period or aggregate 42 minimum period of the indeterminate sentence or sentences, or against 43 the term or aggregate term of the determinate sentence or sentences, or 44 where consecutive determinate and indeterminate sentences are involved,
45 against the aggregate minimum period as calculated pursuant to subpara-
46 graph (iv) of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 70.40 of the 47 penal law. Such allowances shall be calculated as follows:

48 (a) A person serving two or more indeterminate sentences which run
49 concurrently may receive a merit time allowance not to exceed [~~one-~~
50 ~~sixth~~] one-half of the minimum period of the indeterminate sentence
51 imposed [~~for an offense other than an A-I felony offense defined in~~
52 ~~article two hundred twenty of the penal law, or one third of the minimum~~
53 ~~period of the indeterminate sentence imposed for an A-I felony offense~~
54 ~~defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law, whichever allow-~~
55 ~~ance results in the longest unexpired time to run~~] by the court.

(b) A person serving two or more indeterminate sentences which run consecutively may receive a merit time allowance not to exceed the amount of ~~[one-third]~~ one-half of the minimum or aggregate minimum period of the sentences imposed ~~[for an A-I felony offense defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law, plus one-sixth of the minimum or aggregate minimum period of the sentences imposed for an offense other than such A-I felony offense]~~ by the court.

(c) A person serving two or more determinate sentences ~~[for an offense defined in article two hundred twenty or two hundred twenty-one of the penal law]~~ which run concurrently may receive a merit time allowance not to exceed ~~[one-seventh]~~ one-quarter of the term of the determinate sentence which has the longest unexpired time to run.

(d) A person serving two or more determinate sentences ~~[for an offense defined in article two hundred twenty or two hundred twenty-one of the penal law]~~ which run consecutively may receive a merit time allowance not to exceed ~~[one-seventh]~~ one-quarter of the aggregate term of such determinate sentences.

(e) A person serving one or more indeterminate sentences and one or more determinate sentences ~~[for an offense defined in article two hundred twenty or two hundred twenty-one of the penal law]~~ which run concurrently may receive a merit time allowance not to exceed ~~[one-sixth]~~ one-half of the minimum period of the indeterminate sentence imposed ~~[for an offense other than an A-I felony offense defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law, one-third of the minimum period of the indeterminate sentence imposed for an A-I felony offense defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law,]~~ or ~~[one-seventh]~~ one-quarter of the term of the determinate sentence, whichever allowance results in the largest unexpired time to run.

(f) A person serving one or more indeterminate sentences and one or more determinate sentences which run consecutively may receive a merit time allowance not to exceed the sum of ~~[one-sixth]~~ one-half of the minimum or aggregate minimum period of the indeterminate sentence or sentences imposed ~~[for an offense other than an A-I felony offense defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law, one-third of the minimum or aggregate minimum period of the indeterminate sentence or sentences imposed for an A-I felony offense defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law]~~ and ~~[one-seventh]~~ one-quarter of the term or aggregate term of the determinate sentence or sentences.

(g) The provisions of this subdivision shall apply to persons in custody serving ~~[an]~~ a determinate or indeterminate sentence on the effective date of this subdivision as well as to persons sentenced to ~~[an]~~ a determinate or indeterminate sentence on and after the effective date of this subdivision ~~[and prior to September first, two thousand five and to persons sentenced to a determinate sentence prior to September first, two thousand eleven for a felony as defined in article two hundred twenty or two hundred twenty-one of the penal law]~~. The merit time allowances set forth in this subdivision shall apply retroactively, and shall be credited toward every incarcerated individual's sentence within ninety days of the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-five that amended this subdivision.

~~[2-b. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a person is serving more than one indeterminate sentence, at least one of which is imposed for a class A-I felony offense defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law, the authorized merit time allowance granted pursuant to paragraph (d) of subdivision one of this section shall be calculated as follows:~~

~~(a) In the event a person is serving two or more indeterminate sentences with different minimum periods which run concurrently, the merit time allowance shall be based upon the sentence with the longest unexpired minimum period. If the sentence with the longest unexpired minimum period was imposed for a class A-I felony, the merit time credit shall be one third of such sentence's minimum period; if such sentence was imposed for an offense other than a class A-I felony, such merit time credit shall be one sixth of such sentence's minimum period. Provided, however, that where the minimum period of any other concurrent indeterminate sentence is greater than such reduced minimum period, the minimum period of such other concurrent indeterminate sentence shall also be reduced but only to the extent that the minimum period of such other concurrent sentence, as so reduced, is equal to the reduced minimum period of such sentence with the longest unexpired minimum period to run.~~

~~(b) A person serving two or more indeterminate sentences with the same minimum periods which run concurrently, and no concurrent indeterminate sentence with any greater minimum period, shall have the minimum period of each such sentence reduced in the amount of one third of such minimum period if all such sentences were imposed for a class A-I felony.~~

~~(c) A person serving two or more indeterminate sentences that run consecutively shall have the aggregate minimum period of such sentences reduced in the amount of one third of such aggregate minimum period of the sentences imposed for a class A-I felony, plus one sixth of such aggregate minimum period of the sentences imposed for an offense other than a class A-I felony.]~~

3. The commissioner of corrections and community supervision shall promulgate rules and regulations for the fair and equitable granting, withholding, forfeiture, cancellation and restoration of allowances authorized by this section in accordance with the criteria herein specified. Such rules and regulations shall specify procedures to ensure that similarly situated incarcerated persons are treated similarly with respect to the granting, withholding, forfeiture or cancellation of allowances, and include provisions designating the person or committee in each correctional institution delegated to make discretionary determinations with respect to the allowances, the books and records to be kept, and a procedure for review of the institutional determinations by the commissioner.
