Introduced by M. of A. NOVAKHOV, CHANG, BROOK-KRASNY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend vehicle and traffic law, in relation to prohibiting metered parking on certain streets in the city of New York

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new section 1640-t to read as follows:

§ 1640-t. Residential parking in the city of New York. 1. For the purposes of this section, the term "residential dwelling" shall mean any building or structure used in whole or in part as the home residence or sleeping place of one or more humans excluding mixed use property where primary ground floor use is commercial.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary, the city of New York shall be prohibited from placing parking meters on streets that contain no less than fifty percent and no more than seventy-five percent of buildings that qualify as residential dwellings.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
